18 October – World Mission Sunday
"One in Christ, United in Mission"

At this weekend liturgies, Fr. Felix Emaikwu, a diocesan priest from Ijebu-Ode Diocese, Nigeria, will speak about the missionary work currently going on in the Catholic Diocese of Ijebu-Ode, Nigeria, a predominantly Muslim area. He has a vast knowledge of the rural area of the diocese, having played different roles in the affairs of the diocese for over 10 years as a priest. Your support for mission will be greatly appreciated because when you give to the Missions, you give to a good cause. Thank you as you warmly welcome Fr. Felix Emaikwu to the parish.

Each year, on the second-to-last Sunday of October, Catholics throughout the world celebrate World Mission Sunday—a day of prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission in more than 1,300 mission territories.
In 2026, this celebration takes on special significance as the Church marks the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926 as a universal expression of the Church's missionary identity.

We are pleased to share Pope Leo XIV's video message for World Mission Sunday 2026.
Reflecting on his own vocation, Pope Leo XIV shares: "Looking back on my youth, I can see how the prayers offered to the Lord of the harvest mysteriously helped prepare my heart to hear Jesus' call to follow Him as an Augustinian missionary."

The beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen on September 24 was a great gift to the Church in the United States. While many know him best for his TV presence, books, and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "My greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church."
He is the greatest National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in the history of the Church, helping raise $200 million (in today's money, $2.1 billion) to support the growth of the Church.
Under his leadership (1950–1966), World Mission Sunday became a defining moment in the life of the Church in the United States. We can surely count on his intercession for World Mission Sunday 2026, which will take place next week on October 18, as we together reflect upon, pray for and take a collection to support the missions.
Blessed Fulton Sheen, pray for us!
