THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's Gospel marks a turning point, not only in Jesus' ministry, but in the lives of ordinary people who dared to respond to an extraordinary call. Jesus begins his public ministry with a simple yet powerful message: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Repent does not simply mean to feel sorry for sins. It means to change direction, to turn our lives toward God, to realign our priorities with his will. In the public ministry of the Lord there is a reference to the prophecy of Issah and the call of the first disciples.

"The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light." Darkness can mean many things: confusion, fear, sin, injustice, loneliness, discouragement. He goes to Galilee, a place considered insignificant and even suspect. This reminds us that God's light reaches us exactly where we are. Christ still walks into the "Galilees" of our lives: our struggles, failures, and uncertainties. Jesus called the first disciples, they left everything. The nets represent security, habit, comfort, and control. Following Jesus always involves letting go. Called not only to follow, but to share. Jesus does not call disciples simply to walk behind him. He calls them to share in his mission.

Jesus continues to pass by the shores of our lives. He continues to say, "Come after me." The question is not whether he calls us. The question is how we respond. May this Eucharist give us the courage to leave behind what holds us back, the grace to walk in his light, and the joy of following him with trust.

God Bless,
Fr. Joseph

TIPS FOR THE NEW YEAR 2026 (Part 4) from Sherry Eastwood Falls

44 tips from "The 80-Year-Old Wall" by Hideki Wada

24. If sleep won't come, don't force it. Rest however you can.
25. Joyful activities wake up the brain. Dance. Paint. Sing. Whatever works.
26. Say how you feel. No need to bottle it up anymore.
27. Find a good family doctor. Early. Not during a crisis.
28. Be bold. You don't need to be overly patient all the time.
29. It's okay to change your mind. You're not a statue.
30. Dementia? A divine gift. A gentle way to forget pain.
31. Keep learning. Stop, and you'll feel old instantly.
32. Fame isn't everything. You've got enough.
33. Switch off the telly sometimes. Don't just watch—live.
