TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The readings for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A, invite us to consider God's care, our responsibilities, and our response to His call. Like a vineyard entrusted to workers, our lives and all we have received are gifts from God, meant to bear good fruit.

In the First Reading, the prophet Isaiah presents a moving vineyard song. God, the vine grower, devotes great care to his people and expects good fruit. Yet, instead of love and justice, He finds injustice and unfaithfulness, bringing divine sorrow. God calls us to act with love and respect for others.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells of tenants who refuse to honor the landowner, rejecting both his servants and his son. The parable warns against ignoring God's message. God entrusts each of us with responsibilities—in family, work, and faith—and calls us to care for these gifts. By doing so, we honor God, bear good fruit, and build our lives on Christ, the cornerstone.

God bless.

Fr. Chacko
