

Book of Remembrance
The Parish of Portishead

The anniversary of the death of our loved ones is always a very special time. We recall again the sense of loss and feel again the grief in our hearts. We also remember with gratitude the love they shared with us and all our treasured memories of them.

At such times prayer can be a great comfort. God comes to sustain and uphold us through the difficult times. Our relationship with God also links us forever with our loved ones for they now share His heavenly home.

As part of our regular prayers in our churches at St. Peter's and St Nicholas' we remember on the anniversary of their death those whose names are recorded in our Book of Remembrance.

The Book of Remembrance is in a glass display case in St Peter's Church and the pages are turned each day. St Peter's Church is open daily so that you can visit the church on the date concerned and see the entry in the book.

If you would like your loved ones name included in our Book of Remembrance, please complete the attached form and return it to the Church Office along with the £15.00 calligraphy fee. In addition to the name of your loved one you can also include a short (max of 10 words) inscription.

When we are weary
And in need of strength,
When we are lost
And sick at heart,
We remember him.

When we have a joy
We crave to share,
When we have decisions
That are difficult to make,
When we have achievements
That are based on his,
We remember him.

At the blowing of the wind
And in the chill of winter,
At the opening of the buds
And in the rebirth of spring,
We remember him.

At the blueness of the skies
And in the warmth of the summer,
At the rustling of the leaves
And in the beauty of the autumn,
We remember him.

At the saying of our prayers
And the offering of our worship,
At the celebrating of God's love
And the gift of eternal life,
We remember him.

At the rising of the sun
And at its setting,
We remember him.
