An Induction to February

For many of us, February can feel like a bleak month. The familiar festivals of Advent and Christmas are already fading into memory, and as we enter this last stretch of winter, some of us do so with a sense of dullness or emptiness. It can seem like a month in which very little happens.

Yet beneath our feet, the earth is quietly warming, beginning to stir, winter dormancy is breaking, and the ground is preparing to wake up for the coming spring. Spring makes her presence known in the snowdrops and crocuses that push bravely through the cold soil, brightening bare hedgerows and leafless branches. These small signs remind us that a new season is already unfolding.

The church calendar marks this turning of the year with Candlemas. This year, our Candlemas service will be held at St Peter's Church. During the service, we will bless the candles that will light our homes and churches throughout the coming year. Our celebration will also mark a special moment of transition: before the service begins, I (Lindsay) will be licensed into my new parish role as Team Pioneer.

As many of you know, I feel deeply called to live and serve here—a calling to both the people and the land. It is a calling rooted deep within me, a sense of connectedness and inherited belonging that stirs my heart and draws me into our beautiful community. Sometimes this stirring is a gentle whisper; at other times it feels like a crack of thunder rolling across the Gordano Valley. It is a longing, a restlessness of belonging, holding me within the gravitas of God's call, rooted and grounded in the place we all call home.

As this new season of Team Pioneer begins, I find myself stepping into a threshold space—an unknown edge between what has been and what is not yet. It is a space that feels both daunting and exhilarating. Moving from the security of a full-time role into a part-time one brings its own fears: fear of the unseen path, fear of not knowing. Yet alongside that fear is a wild, joyful excitement, a sense that God is opening new pathways and inviting not only me, but our whole parish, into a fresh season of ministry.

This is a journey we will take together. It is a time to look outward, to notice what God is already doing among us, and to wonder how we might join in. I know I will need to slow down, to listen, to be open to the gentle leading of the Holy Spirit. Through prayer and contemplation, she can ease our discomfort, steady our steps, and reveal the wisdom, rhythm, and richness of the paths we are called to walk.

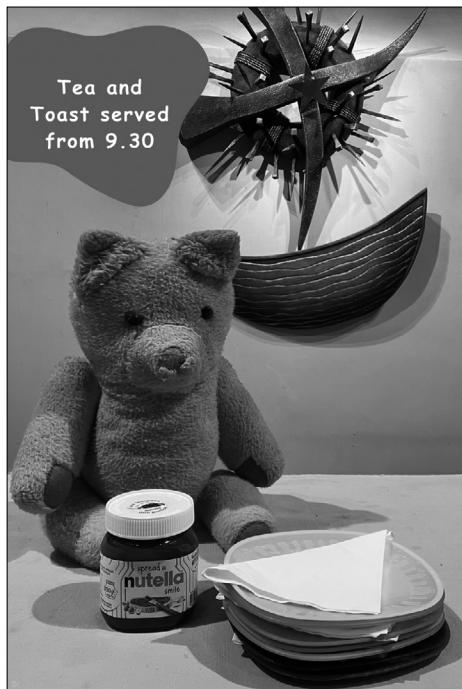

As we move through February and towards the light of spring, may we hold courage and curiosity close. May we trust that God is already at work in the quiet places, both within us and around us. And may this new season—of nature, of ministry, and of community—unfold with grace, hope, and the warmth of Christ's guiding light.

Rev Lindsay Smith

Lindsay's role will be changing from the beginning of February. Her training curacy (paid for by the Diocese) finishes at the end of January. However, we are delighted that she will be continuing to live and work among us. We have a grant from the Growing Faith Foundation to encourage the formation of faith in children and families. Combining that with some money the church had in a fund for a Children and Families worker means that we will be able to employ Lindsay as Community Pioneer for 3 days a week for the next 2 years. She will be working to support children and families within and beyond the church.

She will continue to exercise her ministry among us as an ordained Deacon / Associate Minister but this will be in a self-supporting capacity.

Please pray for her as she settles into this new pattern of life and ministry.

Lindsay's Licensing & Candlemas Service

Monday 2nd February – 7.30 pm St Peter's Church, Portishead

Lindsay will be licensed as Associate Minister by Archdeacon Charlie Peer, during the service of Candlemas, where candles are lit and blessed—including any you'd like to bring for use at home in 2026.

All are warmly invited.

Martha's Kitchen @ Impero Lounge!

St. Peter's Church, chore and tidy morning

On Saturday 14 February a small group would love some help with cleaning the church, litter picking in the churchyard, weeding, light gardening and preparing craft materials and organising them for the month ahead.

Every small job helps — and just a little time from a few people really does make a big difference. There'll be plenty of friendly chat, coffee, and cake to enjoy along the way.

Please bring along your duster, any garden tools you have — and feel free to bring the family too

Letter from Holy Trinity School

Our school is a welcoming, inclusive community where every individual is valued and relationships are cherished. As part of our ethos, Trinity uses the Thrive Approach—a research based developmental framework—to support children's social and emotional wellbeing. This helps build resilience, nurtures confidence, and prepares children to engage positively with learning as they navigate the ups and downs of everyday life.

Recently, our staff have refreshed and expanded their Thrive training so we can continue to offer the very best support and help every child experience fullness of life. Children are encouraged to grow and flourish through a wide range of wellbeing opportunities, such as spending time with our school pets, using calm breakout areas, working with highly trained staff who help them understand and manage their emotions, and enjoying our garden and outdoor spaces. Reflection areas around the school also offer quiet moments for children to pause and reset.

An important part of embedding Thrive is helping all children understand the social and emotional needs of their peers. This encourages a culture of grace, compassion, and mutual support—whether that means offering encouragement, seeking help from an adult, or simply giving a friend the space they need.

Somerset Levels Birdwatch

On 8 December 2025 seven intrepid birdwatchers set out from Portishead on an overcast day to travel to the Somerset Levels. The trip was organised by Malcolm Kemp as a result of a promise at October's Auction of Promises. Despite heavy rain on the journey down, it fortunately held off during our visit to the neighbouring RSPB Ham Wall and Shapwick Heath National Nature Reserves. The tranquil setting, far away from the hustle & bustle of everyday life and traffic noise, allowed us to enjoy fellowship and to wonder at God's marvellous creation. There were distant views of Glastonbury Tor and we were fortunate to see thirty different bird species, including a plethora of different ducks. The highlights were close views of a resplendent Kingfisher, a Great White Egret and a pair of Marsh Harriers. Unfortunately, we didn't see a Starling murmuration. A most enjoyable day in excellent company - and we didn't get wet!

The 1876 Portishead Flower Show – it was about more than just fruit and veg!

I was excited recently to be handed an 1876 edition of the Portishead Parish Magazine by my old friend David Welsh. Therein were the full results of the 13th annual Flower Show. The show on August 23rd, held in the field of Mr J Fisher, was reported the following day in the 'Bristol Times and Mirror'.

The fulsome review of the committee's '...encouragement of local cottagers in the cultivation of their gardens and to foster the moral influence of such like avocations...' was taken up in particular by Dr Wigan and family of Clarence House. Dr Wigan did well with peaches, melons and grapes, which suggests good heated greenhouses.

There are some well known local names among the prize-winners, even a century and a half later: A G Heaven (apples, plums); Mrs Heaven (bouquet of flowers under glass); Ellen Cooling (nosegay, cut flowers); Andrew Knight (selection of ferns); George Tippett (flowers in pots); Albert Harding – market gardener - (selection of vegetables); George Stokes (six geraniums – 1st prize); Mary Atherton (best tray of vegetables). Even the Rector, Revd A J Arkell, managed a 2nd prize for his asters! The most prolific competitor in all classes was Mark Coombs (no relation, but it would be nice to know of any current connections...).

Prizes given to 'all amateurs in the county of Somersetshire' included the Virgo family of Clevedon (well known for their fields of violets, some of their delicate blooms sent to London by train)). Also to J W Miles of Kingsweston for the best collection of cut flowers 'not to occupy a space of more than three feet'.

It was of some local significance that the judges were the gardeners – Messrs Morse (to William Proctor Baker); Dodds (at Bishopstone); and Walters (to Mrs Gibbs at Tyntesfield).

Why was there so much interest in a local flower show? The landed gentry: the Miles family (Bristol bankers and Avonmouth landowners); the Gibbs of Tyntesfield (shipowners – including the SS Great Britain); and William Proctor Baker (Bristol Redcliff mill magnate) were all financially aware of future events. Avonmouth Dock was to open in 1877 and Portishead in 1879. What better way to 'keep in with the locals' than by supporting their local flower show!!
