FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT REFLECTION: Our Lord Jesus Christ said in today's Gospel that He came into the world for judgment, "so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind" (Jn 9:39). Jesus is the light of the world in whose light we see light (cf. Ps. 36:9). Our eyes need light in order to see anything. We cannot see God's truth unless He gives us the grace to see. We have to admit that we cannot see on our own (even though we think that we see just fine). Asking God for light gives us the ability to see as God sees. Without His light we cannot see at all. With God's light we can see ourselves and others as God sees. Light is a major theme of Lent. The Lord wants us to reject darkness so that we can live in His light. Rejoice that the true light, Jesus Christ, has come into the world (c. Jn. 1:9-10). May we rejoice in Jesus since He brings light to our darkness and salvation to us sinners. With hope we look forward to seeing Him in perpetual light.

Lent is a privileged time to renew our friendship with God, Lent is also a time to set aside some quiet time each day—five minutes, ten minutes, or whatever we can manage to simply be with our Lord to speak to Him honestly listen to Him in silence and meditate on Sacred Scripture. A good and amazing suggestion is The HALLOW APP LENTPRAY 40 daily readings. Hallow information is available on the tables at the back of the Church.
