

Analise Sigafos, also known as Annie, is a 10-year-old 5th grader who is excited for her fourth competition season and her third solo. She started dancing at LeRoux at age three, taking ballet and tap. Since then, she has expanded her training to include Acro, Jazz, Hip-Hop, Lyrical, Modern, and Musical Theatre. Her current favorite styles are Jazz and Hip-Hop. Last year, Annie achieved 1st overall at Reverb for her solo and 1st overall at both Reverb and Starpower for her trio. She is also learning to play the cello and her favorite school subjects are music and art. She looks forward to working hard and having another great year on the Steppers dance team.
