North American Martyrs Parish of the Archdiocese of Seattle is staffed by the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Our parish mission is to sanctify souls through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the Sacraments in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter was founded in 1988 as a Clerical Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right. The mission of the Fraternity is to sanctify priests through the traditional liturgy of the Roman Rite and to place them at the service of the Church.

With Gratitude

Many thanks to Mr. Sean Calderon for generously sharing his time with our parish over the past five weeks. As he prepares to begin his sixth year of seminary formation, let us keep him in our prayers—entrusting him to the care of Our Lord and the intercession of Our Blessed Mother.

Softball and BBQ Potluck

Thank you to everyone who came out last Sunday for an afternoon of softball, sunshine, and good food! Huge thanks to our players who brought their A-game to the field—and to the all-stars behind the scenes who handled the grilling, set-up, and clean-up.

Fr. Shannon Away

Fr. Shannon will be away on vacation through Friday, July 11. Fr. Myers will be here during those days.

Parish Picnic—Save the Date!

All are invited to our annual potluck picnic at NAM on Saturday, July 26th from 1-4PM. Burgers and hotdogs will be provided. Please bring a side dish, dessert, or beverages to share. Join us for this afternoon of fun for the whole family!

Young Children at Mass

While NAM is blessed to have many growing families at our parish, sometimes noisy babies and toddlers prevent others from hearing the Mass/sermon. If your children are being particularly vocal during Mass, please remember that the library is available for use until your child quiets down. And for any new families, please note there is a diaper changing room across from the bathrooms.

Have You Registered?

If you would like to register as a parishioner, please visit our website at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org for a pdf form, which can be submitted online.

Nota Bene

The “Remember in your Prayers” part of the bulletin has been updated to include separate sections: Deceased Parishioners, Deceased Friends and Family, and the Sick and Homebound. If you are aware of a deceased parishioner who is not listed, or who should be moved from the Friends and Family section to the Parishioner section, please contact the parish office.

Sunday Coffee Hour Volunteers Needed

We invite everyone to stay and visit after Mass and enjoy refreshments in the Fr. Reichmann Hall (downstairs) while getting to know fellow parishioners. We are currently seeking volunteers to help with the Coffee Hours following the 8:30AM and 10:30AM Masses. See the signup sheet on the counter just as you enter the hall.

Church Etiquette

Let us maintain proper decorum within the church by observing Christian modesty — out of reverence for the house of God and the Most Holy Eucharist, out of charity towards ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor. Attire that does not meet this standard includes, but is not limited to: sleeveless garments, low-cut necklines, above-the-knee hemlines, and form-fitting clothing for both men and women.

Let us preserve the silence and reverence in God’s house by taking conversations outside and ensuring all cellphones are silenced before entering the church.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL UPDATE

Goal: $66,209.00
Pledged to Date: $15,443.00
Balance Needed: $50,766.00

Your Annual Catholic Appeal donation funds archdiocesan shared services that directly support our parish. Our parish utilizes centralized services – including human resources, communications, technology, and more – so that we can continue to focus on our pastoral work here at the parish.

Registered Households: 446
Households Donating: 50

If each of the remaining registered households in our parish donated just $22 per month for the rest of the year, we’d meet our goal. All money collected over our parish goal will go towards our Building/Renovation Fund. Pledge envelopes are in pews and on the back table and can be placed in the offering. Online giving is available at the Archdiocesan or NAM website. Thank you for your generosity!

INTROIT Ps. 26:1-2

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear? The Lord is my life's refuge; of whom should I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me, themselves stumble and fall. Ps. 26:3 Though an army encamp against me, my heart will not fear.

COLLECT

Grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, that the course of the world may be directed according to Your rule in peace and that Your Church may have the joy of serving You undisturbed.

EPISTLE Rom 8:18-23

Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us. For the eager longing of creation awaits the revelation of the sons of God. For creation was made subject to vanity - not by its own will but by reason of Him Who made it subject - in hope, because creation itself also will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God. For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain until now. And not only it, but we ourselves also who have the first-fruits of the Spirit - we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL Ps. 78:9-10

Pardon our sins, O Lord; why should the nations say, Where is their God? Help us, O God our Saviour; because of the glory of Your name, O Lord, deliver us. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 9:5; 9:10 O God, seated on Your throne, judging justly: be a stronghold for the oppressed in times of distress. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 5:1-11

At that time, while the crowds were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He was standing by Lake Genesareth. And He saw two boats moored by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. And getting into one of the boats, the one that was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, He began to teach the crowds from the boat. But when He had ceased speaking, He said to Simon, Put out into the deep, and lower your nets for a catch. And Simon answered and said to Him, Master, the whole night through we have toiled and have taken nothing; but at Your word I will lower the net. And when they had done so, they enclosed a great number of fishes, but their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their comrades in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had made; and so were also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; henceforth you shall catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

OFFERTORY Ps. 12:4-5

Give light to my eyes that I may never sleep in death, lest my enemy say, I have overcome him.

SECRET

Be appeased, we beseech You, O Lord, by accepting our offerings, and in Your kindness make even our rebellious wills turn to You.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Ps. 17:3

O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer: my God, my rock of refuge!

POST COMMUNION

May the sacrament we have received cleanse us, we beseech You, O Lord, and by its grace protect us.

The Church dedicates the month of July to the Precious Blood of Jesus, a profound reminder of the price of our redemption. This devotion invites us to contemplate the sacrificial love of Christ, poured out for the salvation of the world.

St. Catherine of Siena, whose writings are steeped in this devotion, once wrote:

“Blessed Christ did not buy us with gold or silver or pearls or other precious stones; no, he bought us with His Precious Blood.”

She urged the faithful to “hold it before one’s eyes, in holy and sweet gratitude,” recognizing in the Blood of Christ both mercy and victory.

Let us spend this month offering prayers of reparation, thanksgiving, and adoration, drawing ever closer to the Heart that bled for love of us.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE by St. Francis de Sales

PART III. CONTAINING COUNSELS CONCERNING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE.

CHAPTER X. We must attend to the Business of Life carefully, but without Eagerness or Over-anxiety. (Con’t)

In all your affairs lean solely on God’s Providence, by means of which alone your plans can succeed. Meanwhile, on your part work on in quiet co-operation with Him, and then rest satisfied that if you have trusted entirely to Him you will always obtain such a measure of success as is most profitable for you, whether it seems so or not to your own individual judgment.

Imitate a little child, whom one sees holding tight with one hand to its father, while with the other it gathers strawberries or blackberries from the wayside hedge. Even so, while you gather and use this world’s goods with one hand, always let the other be fast in your Heavenly Father’s Hand, and look round from time to time to make sure that He is satisfied with what you are doing, at home or abroad. Beware of letting go, under the idea of making or receiving more—if He forsakes you, you will fall to the ground at the first step. When your ordinary work or business is not specially engrossing, let your heart be fixed more on God than on it; and if the work be such as to require your undivided attention, then pause from time to time and look to God, even as navigators who make for the haven they would attain, by looking up at the heavens rather than down upon the deeps on which they sail. So doing, God will work with you, in you, and for you, and your work will be blessed.

CHAPTER XI. On Obedience.

LOVE alone leads to perfection, but the three chief means for acquiring it are obedience, chastity, and poverty. Obedience is a consecration of the heart, chastity of the body, and poverty of all worldly goods to the Love and Service of God. These are the three members of the Spiritual Cross, and all three must be raised upon the fourth, which is humility. I am not going here to speak of these three virtues as solemn vows, which only concern religious, nor even as ordinary vows, although when sought under the shelter of a vow all virtues receive an enhanced grace and merit; but it is not necessary for perfection that they should be undertaken as vows, so long as they are practised diligently. The three vows solemnly taken put a man into the state of perfection, whereas a diligent observance thereof brings him to perfection. For, observe, there is a great difference between the state of perfection and perfection itself, inasmuch as all prelates and religious are in the former, although unfortunately it is too obvious that by no means all attain to the latter. Let us then endeavour to practise these three virtues, according to our several vocations, for although we are not thereby called to a state of perfection, we may attain through them to perfection itself, and of a truth we are all bound to practise them, although not all after the same manner.
