Teen Night — Canceled

Teen Night for January is canceled—however, all teens are invited and encouraged to attend NAM's Christmas Ball on Saturday, January 10th. See details below!

2026 NAM Christmas Ball

All parishioners are invited to an evening of dancing, music, and celebration on Saturday, January 10th, from 6–9 PM. The attire is formal. Dessert will be provided. Admission is $20 per family or $5 per person. Email tiffany.webb@northamericanmartyrs.org to RSVP—today is the final day!

Young Adults Meeting

The Young Adults will meet on Saturday, January 17th at 6 PM at the church. Bring a Friend!

First Holy Communion Classes

Preparation classes for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion will begin January 18th. The registration form is available through the office or on the website. Children must turn 7 by the time the sacrament is received or with permission from the Pastor.

Women's Group Event

All ladies of the parish are invited to an evening of prayer and dinner on Saturday, January 24th. We will begin with prayer in the church, starting promptly at 4:00 PM, followed by dinner in the hall. Dinner will feature grilled chicken and fish; please bring a side dish or dessert to share (see the E-News to RSVP and for the sign-up link). The evening will conclude at 7:00 PM. We look forward to seeing you there!

Sunday Coffee Hour

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Masses for Coffee Hour in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

Young Children at Mass

While our parish is blessed with many growing families, sometimes noisy babies and toddlers prevent others from hearing the Mass/sermon. If your children are being particularly vocal during Mass, please remember that the library is available for use until your child quiets down. For new families, please note that a diaper changing room is located across from the restrooms.

Lost and Found

Our Lost and Found box overfloweth! The box can be found in the closet in the hallway between the restrooms. Please check if any of your missing missals, books, or other items are there.

Parking Reminder for Sunday Mass

As our parish community continues to grow, our parking lot does not—sometimes leading to understandable frustration. We kindly ask for your patience and consideration when arriving for Sunday Mass. Overflow parking on Sundays is available at Trike Stop (1/2 block north) or Woodway Campus (to the southwest of the church on 100th) - both are just a short walk away.

NAM E-News

The NAM E-News is a weekly email from Fr. Shannon that keeps parishioners connected and informed. Each edition typically includes any parish updates and announcements and additional details on upcoming events. If you are a registered parishioner and would like to subscribe, email fr.shannon@northamericanmartyrs.org.

Church Etiquette

Let us maintain proper decorum within the church by observing Christian modesty — out of reverence for the house of God and the Most Holy Eucharist, out of charity towards ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Please preserve the silence and reverence in God's house by taking conversations outside and ensuring all cellphones are silenced before entering church.

INTROIT Phil 2:10-11

At the Name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven, on earth, and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father. Ps 8:2 O Lord, our Lord, how glorious is Your Name over all the earth.

COLLECT

O God, You Who appointed Your only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of the human race, and commanded that He be called Jesus, mercifully grant that we may enjoy in heaven the vision of Him Whose holy Name we venerate on earth.

EPISTLE Acts 4:8-12

In those days, Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said, Rulers of the people and elders, if we are on trial today about a good work done to a cripple, as to how this man has been cured, be it known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Whom you crucified, Whom God has raised from the dead, even in this Name does he stand here before you, sound. This is 'The stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.' Neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.

GRADUAL Ps 105:47

Save us, O Lord, our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy Name and glory in praising You.

Isa. 63:16 You, O Lord, are our Father and our Redeemer, from everlasting is Your Name. Alleluia, alleluia.

Ps 144:21 May my mouth speak the praise of the Lord, and may all flesh bless His holy Name. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 2:21

At that time, when eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the Child, His name was called Jesus, the name given Him by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

OFFERTORY Ps 85:12, 5

I will give thanks to You, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and I will glorify Your Name forever. For You, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon You. Alleluia.

SECRET

May Your blessing, O most merciful God, which makes all creation flourish, sanctify this our sacrifice, which we offer You to the glory of the Name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and may it be pleasing to Your majesty as an act of praise and be profitable to us for our salvation.

PREFACE OF THE NATIVITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God, for through the Mystery of the Word made flesh, the new light of Thy glory hath shone upon the eyes of our mind, so that while we acknowledge God in visible form, we may through Him be drawn to the love of things invisible. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Throne and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of Thy glory, evermore saying:

COMMUNION Ps 85:9-10

All the nations You have made shall come and worship You, O Lord, and glorify Your Name. For You are great, and do wondrous deeds; You alone are God. Alleluia.

POST COMMUNION

Almighty, eternal God, You Who have created and redeemed us, graciously look upon our needs, and deign to receive with kind and favorable countenance the sacrifice of the Saving Victim, which we have offered to Your majesty, in honor of the Name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, that, Your grace being poured out upon us, we may have the joy of seeing our names written in heaven, under the glorious Name of Jesus, the sign of eternal predestination.

PART III. CONTAINING COUNSELS CONCERNING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE.

CHAPTER XXIII. On The Practice of Bodily Mortification. (Continued)

I am prepared to say with S. Jerome (to the pious Leta) that I disapprove of long and immoderate fasting, especially for the young. I have learnt by experience that when the colt grows weary it turns aside, and so when young people become delicate by excessive fasting, they readily take to self-indulgence. The stag does not run with due speed either when over fat or too thin, and we are in peril of temptation both when the body is overfed or underfed; in the one case it grows indolent, in the other it sinks through depression, and if we cannot bear with it in the first case, neither can it bear with us in the last. A want of moderation in the use of fasting, discipline and austerity has made many a one useless in works of charity during the best years of his life, as happened to S. Bernard, who repented of his excessive austerity. Those who misuse the body at the outset will have to indulge it overmuch at last. Surely it were wiser to deal sensibly with it, and treat it according to the work and service required by each man's state of life.

Fasting and labour both exhaust and subdue the body. If your work is necessary or profitable to God's Glory, I would rather see you bear the exhaustion of work than of fasting. Such is the mind of the Church, who dispenses those who are called to work for God or their neighbour even from her prescribed fasts. One man finds it hard to fast, another finds it as hard to attend the sick, to visit prisons, to hear confessions, preach, minister to the afflicted, pray, and the like. And the last hardship is better than the other; for while it subdues the flesh equally, it brings forth better fruit. And as a general rule it is better to preserve more bodily strength than is absolutely necessary, than to damage it more than is necessary. Bodily strength can always be lowered if needful, but we cannot restore it at will. It seems to me that we ought to have in great reverence that which our Saviour and Redeemer Jesus Christ said to His disciples, "Eat such things as are set before you." To my mind there is more virtue in eating whatever is offered you just as it comes, whether you like it or not, than in always choosing what is worst; for although the latter course may seem more ascetic, the former involves greater submission of will, because by it you give up not merely your taste, but your choice; and it is no slight austerity to hold up one's likings in one's hand, and subject them to all manner of accidents. Furthermore, this kind of mortification makes no show, inconveniences no one, and is admirably adapted to social life. To be always discarding one dish for another, examining everything, suspicious as to everything, making a fuss over every morsel—all this to my mind is contemptible, and implies too much thought of meats and platters. To my mind there was more austerity in S. Bernard's drinking oil by mistake for wine or water than if he had deliberately drunk wormwood, for it showed that he was not thinking of what he drank. And the real meaning of those sacred words, "Eat such things as are set before you," lies in such an indifference to what one eats and drinks. I should make an exception of any food which is unwholesome, or likely to be injurious to the mind's energies, such as certain hot, spiced, or stimulating dishes; as also on certain occasions when nature requires to be refreshed and invigorated in order to perform the work needful for God's Glory.
