Welcome Whether you are visiting, a newcomer, or returning after some time away, we are grateful that you are here with us today.

Out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, please observe silence upon entering the church. This includes the overflow area, which is an extension of the nave. Kindly take conversations outside and ensure that cellphones are silenced before entering.

Let us also maintain proper decorum by observing Christian modesty—out of reverence for the house of God, out of charity toward ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Red missal booklets are available in the pews; please ask an usher if you need help locating one. The readings for Sunday Masses are generally found on page 5 of this bulletin.

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Sunday Masses for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacraments listed below are available for registered parishioners. Please contact the pastor with any questions or to begin the preparation process. Additional information and forms are available at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org.

Infant Baptism — The Church urges that infants be baptized without delay; baptism should ordinarily take place within the first month. The baptismal name is to be taken from a saint, providing the child with a heavenly patron. Letters of good standing must be obtained from the pastor of each godparent's parish before the baptism.

First Holy Communion for Children — Classes typically start in January of each year. Children must turn age 7 by the time the Sacrament is received in mid-May.

Adults Entering the Church — Adults seeking to enter the Church receive 6–12 months of instruction with a priest, covering the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and preparation for the sacraments.

Marriage — Couples preparing for marriage meet with a priest for a minimum of six months prior to the wedding date, allowing time for instruction, discernment, and completion of the required preparation.

Sacraments for the Dying and Funerals — Contact the pastor immediately when a parishioner is gravely ill or near death so that the sacraments (Confession, Extreme Unction, and Viaticum) may be administered. Contact the pastor to make all funeral arrangements.

Help Fund Youth Activities at NAM

We are establishing a new designated fund, similar to the Building Fund, for parishioners who wish to support youth activities. Nearly thirty percent of our registered parishioners are under age 18. This fund will help cover expenses such as Teen Night pizza, transportation to the Ignite Conference in Portland, altar server appreciation events, girls' and boys' summer camps, and more.

Donation envelopes for the new Youth Activities Fund will be added to the regular envelope packets beginning in July. In the meantime, red-bordered envelopes are available on the table at the church entrance, and the fund is already listed in our online giving. Thank you for your generosity.

Help Needed at Girls' Camp, 6/7 - 6/12

Girls' Camp is approaching and we're looking for volunteers to assist in the camp kitchen, as well as a certified lifeguard to help keep our girls safe during water activities. Please contact the office.

NAM v. St. Joseph Softball Game

Plan to attend the annual NAM v. St. Joseph softball game June 28, 4-8 PM at Hidden Valley Park in Bellevue. Burgers and dogs will be provided. Bring a side and/or drinks to share and don't forget your chairs! Men aged 15+ are invited to play in the softball game — email the office.

Interested in joining Catholic Schoolhouse? Interested in learning more about our weekly Catholic homeschool co-op meeting here at NAM? We have space for a few more families to join us in September 2026. For information, contact Adrienne Wieber at edmondswa@catholicsschoolhouse.com.

Volunteers Needed!

We are seeking dependable adults to assist with ushering, grounds maintenance, coffee hour, and help with the girls' group. Prayerfully consider where you can lend your talents and email the parish office for more information.

Mass Intentions

We are now accepting Mass intentions again. Kindly use the designated green envelopes located on the ushers' table near the church entrance and follow the instructions. When writing your request, clearly state the intention, or the name of the person for whom the Mass is offered, and indicate whether the person is living or deceased.

Please place the completed envelope, along with the stipend, in the parish office drop box or in the Sunday collection basket. Please limit requests to no more than two Mass intentions per household per month, and please do not email Mass intention requests to the parish office.

INTROIT Tob 12:6

Blessed be the Holy Trinity and undivided Unity: we will give glory to Him, because He has shown His mercy to us. Ps 8:2 O Lord, our Lord, how glorious is Your Name over all the earth!

COLLECT

Almighty, eternal God, You Who have given Your servants, in the confession of the true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of that majesty to adore its unity, grant, we beseech You, that in the firmness of this faith we may ever be protected from all harm.

EPISTLE Rom 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible and His judgments and how unsearchable His ways! For Who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been His counselor? Or who has first given to Him, that recompense should be made him? For from Him and through Him and unto Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever, amen.

GRADUAL Dan 3:55-56

Blessed are You, O Lord, Who look into the depths from Your throne upon the Cherubim. Blessed are You, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven, and praiseworthy forever. Alleluia, alleluia.

Dan 3:52 Blessed are You, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and praiseworthy forever. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matt 28:18-20

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you all days, even unto the consummation of the world.

OFFERTORY Tob 12:6

Blessed be God the Father, and the only-begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit: because He has shown His mercy to us.

SECRET

We call upon Your Name, O Lord, and beseech You to hallow this sacrificial offering and through it to make us an eternal offering to You.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Tob 12:6

We bless the God of heaven, and before all living we will praise Him; because He has shown His mercy to us.

POST COMMUNION

May the reception of this sacrament, O Lord our God, and the profession of our faith in the eternal holy Trinity and undivided Unity, benefit us for the salvation of body and soul.

PART III. CONTAINING COUNSELS CONCERNING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE.

“Let charity guide every word.” — St. Francis de Sales

imprudence nor positive appearance of evil, but only such as affords a pretext for malicious slander, either say simply so much, or, better still, say nothing at all. When you speak of your neighbour, look upon your tongue as a sharp razor in the surgeon’s hand, about to cut nerves and tendons; it should be used so carefully, as to insure that no particle more or less than the truth be said. And finally, when you are called upon to blame sin, always strive as far as possible to spare the sinner.

Public, notorious sinners may be spoken of freely, provided always even then that a spirit of charity and compassion prevail, and that you do not speak of them with arrogance or presumption, or as though you took pleasure in the fall of others. To do this is the sure sign of a mean ungenerous mind. And, of course, you must speak freely in condemnation of the professed enemies of God and His Church, heretics and schismatics,—it is true charity to point out the wolf wheresoever he creeps in among the flock. Most people permit themselves absolute latitude in criticising and censuring rulers, and in calumniating nationalities, according to their own opinions and likings. But do you avoid this fault; it is displeasing to God, and is liable to lead you into disputes and quarrels. When you hear evil of any one, cast any doubt you fairly can upon the accusation; or if that is impossible, make any available excuse for the culprit; and where even that may not be, be yet pitiful and compassionate, and remind those with whom you are speaking that such as stand upright do so solely through God’s Grace. Do your best kindly to check the scandal-bearer, and if you know anything favourable to the person criticised, take pains to mention it.

Furthermore, on such occasions it is well to be sure that you are the most proper person among those present to express your opinion, and that your silence would seem in any way to condone the sin. If you are one of the least important persons present, it is probably not your place to censure; but supposing it to be your duty, be most carefully just in what you say,—let there not be a word too much or too little. For instance, you censure the intimacy of certain people, as dangerous and indiscreet. Well, but you must hold the scales with the most exact justice, and not exaggerate in the smallest item. If there be only a slight appearance of evil, say no more than that; if it be a question of some trifling imprudence, do not make it out to be more; if there be really neither

The Salve Regina is the Seasonal Hymn of Our Lady from the eve of Trinity Sunday until the First Sunday of Advent inclusive.

Hail, Holy Queen,
 Mother of Mercy,
 hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope.
 To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
 to thee do we send up our sighs,
 mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
 Turn then, most gracious advocate,
 thine eyes of mercy toward us;
 and after this our exile,
 show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
 O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
