North American Martyrs Parish of the Archdiocese of Seattle is staffed by the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Our mission is to sanctify souls through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the Sacraments in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, founded in 1988 as a Clerical Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, is dedicated to the sanctification of priests through the traditional liturgy of the Roman Rite and to placing them at the service of the Church.

Welcome Whether you are visiting, a newcomer, or returning after some time away, we are grateful that you are here with us today.

Out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, please observe silence upon entering the church. This includes the overflow area, which is an extension of the nave. Kindly take conversations outside and ensure that cellphones are silenced before entering.

Let us also maintain proper decorum by observing Christian modesty—out of reverence for the house of God, out of charity toward ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Red missal booklets are available in the pews; please ask an usher if you need help locating one. The readings for Sunday Masses are generally found on page 5 of this bulletin.

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Sunday Masses for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacraments listed below are available for registered parishioners. Please contact the pastor with any questions or to begin the preparation process. Additional information and forms are available at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org.

Infant Baptism — The Church urges that infants be baptized without delay; baptism should ordinarily take place within the first month. The baptismal name is to be taken from a saint, providing the child with a heavenly patron. Letters of good standing must be obtained from the pastor of each godparent's parish before the baptism.

First Holy Communion for Children — Classes typically start in January of each year. Children must turn age 7 by the time the Sacrament is received in mid-May.

Adults Entering the Church — Adults seeking to enter the Church receive 6–12 months of instruction with a priest, covering the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and preparation for the sacraments.

Marriage — Couples preparing for marriage meet with a priest for a minimum of six months prior to the wedding date, allowing time for instruction, discernment, and completion of the required preparation.

Sacraments for the Dying and Funerals — Contact the pastor immediately when a parishioner is gravely ill or near death so that the sacraments (Confession, Extreme Unction, and Viaticum) may be administered. Contact the pastor to make all funeral arrangements.

Summer Camp Success!

Thank you to the many volunteers who supported this year's Boys and Girls Camps, especially Laura Rookstool, Liz Bresee, and Fr. Myers. Your generosity of time and commitment provided our youth with another memorable week of outdoor fun and faithful catechesis — a tradition our parish is blessed to continue. To help fund youth activities like this, please see the announcement below about NAM's new Youth Activities Fund.

NAM v. St. Joseph Softball Game!

The countdown is on — next Sunday, June 28, NAM takes the field against St. Joseph at Hidden Valley Park (1903 112th Ave NE, Bellevue, WA 98004). Please note: this is the official park address, but parking closest to the baseball fields is located north of the parking lot, behind the office park — see the E-News for a parking map.

The tailgate BBQ will kick off at 4 PM with burgers and dogs. Please bring a side dish and drinks to share; desserts are always encouraged. Then we'll cheer on the teams for what is usually a full-count, bases-loaded kind of game. The evening will wrap up at 8 PM. All are invited and encouraged to attend this fun annual event.

Help Fund Youth Activities at NAM

We are establishing a new designated fund, similar to the Building Fund, for parishioners who wish to support youth activities. Nearly thirty percent of our registered parishioners are under age 18. This fund will help cover expenses such as Teen Night pizza, transportation to the Ignite Conference in Portland, altar server appreciation events, girls' and boys' summer camps, and more.

Donation envelopes for the new Youth Activities Fund will be added to the regular envelope packets beginning in July. In the meantime, red-bordered envelopes are available on the table at the church entrance, and the fund is already listed in our online giving. Thank you for your generosity.

Interested in joining Catholic Schoolhouse?

Interested in learning more about our weekly Catholic homeschool co-op meeting here at NAM? We have space for a few more families to join us in September 2026. For information, contact Adrienne Wieber at edmondswa@catholicschoolhouse.com.

Altar Server Training

Serving at NAM is a privilege open to males of all ages who have made their First Holy Communion and whose families are registered parishioners. Please see Fr. Myers if you are interested or would like more information.

NAM E-News

The NAM E-News is a weekly email from Fr. Shannon that keeps parishioners connected and informed. Each edition typically includes any parish updates and announcements and additional details on upcoming events. If you are a registered parishioner and not currently receiving the E-News and would like to subscribe, email fr.shannon@northamericanmartyrs.org.

A Standard of Christian Modesty

As warmer weather arrives, let us remember that modesty is an act of charity and a virtue to be practiced at all times — not only in church, but in daily life. Out of reverence for God and respect for ourselves and our neighbor, we ask all to observe modest attire: modest necklines, covered shoulders and upper arms, hemlines at or below the knee, and clothing that is neither tight nor sheer. Men are likewise asked to dress respectfully and modestly.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Goal: $63,136
Pledged to Date: $27,629
Balance Needed: $35,507

Thank you everyone! We have raised 44% of our goal for the Annual Catholic Appeal. We are up to 53 families donating. However, we have 483 registered households in the parish. If everyone remaining could donate just $80 this month, we would be done with the Appeal.

Registered Households: 483
Households Donating: 53

Please help us close out this campaign for 2026 by the end of the month! Pledge envelopes are in pews and on the back table and can be placed in the offering. Online giving is available at the Archdiocesan or NAM website. Thank you!

INTROIT Ps. 26:1-2

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear? The Lord is my life's refuge; of whom should I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me, themselves stumble and fall. Ps 26:3 Though an army encamp against me, my heart will not fear.

COLLECT

Grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, that the course of the world may be directed according to Your rule in peace and that Your Church may have the joy of serving You undisturbed.

EPISTLE Rom 8:18-23

Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us. For the eager longing of creation awaits the revelation of the sons of God. For creation was made subject to vanity - not by its own will but by reason of Him Who made it subject - in hope, because creation itself also will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God. For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain until now. And not only it, but we ourselves also who have the first-fruits of the Spirit - we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL Ps. 78:9-10

Pardon our sins, O Lord; why should the nations say, Where is their God? Help us, O God our Saviour; because of the glory of Your name, O Lord, deliver us. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 9:5; 9:10 O God, seated on Your throne, judging justly: be a stronghold for the oppressed in times of distress. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 5:1-11

At that time, while the crowds were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He was standing by Lake Genesareth. And He saw two boats moored by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. And getting into one of the boats, the one that was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, He began to teach the crowds from the boat. But when He had ceased speaking, He said to Simon, Put out into the deep, and lower your nets for a catch. And Simon answered and said to Him, Master, the whole night through we have toiled and have taken nothing; but at Your word I will lower the net. And when they had done so, they enclosed a great number of fishes, but their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their comrades in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had made; and so were also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Do not be afraid; henceforth you shall catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

OFFERTORY Ps. 12:4-5

Give light to my eyes that I may never sleep in death, lest my enemy say, I have overcome him.

SECRET

Be appeased, we beseech You, O Lord, by accepting our offerings, and in Your kindness make even our rebellious wills turn to You.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Ps. 17:3

O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer: my God, my rock of refuge!

POST COMMUNION

May the sacrament we have received cleanse us, we beseech You, O Lord, and by its grace protect us.

PART III. CONTAINING COUNSELS CONCERNING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE.

CHAPTER XXX. Further Counsels as to Conversation.

LET your words be kindly, frank, sincere, straightforward, simple and true; avoid all artifice, duplicity and pretence, remembering that, although it is not always well to publish abroad everything that may be true, yet it is never allowable to oppose the truth. Make it your rule never knowingly to say what is not strictly true, either accusing or excusing, always remembering that God is the God of Truth. If you have unintentionally said what is not true, and it is possible to correct yourself at once by means of explanation or reparation, do so. A straightforward excuse has far greater weight than any falsehood.

It may be lawful occasionally to conceal or disguise the truth, but this should never be done save in such special cases as make this reserve obviously a necessity for the service and glory of God. Otherwise all such artifice is dangerous; and we are told in Holy Scripture that God's Holy Spirit will not abide with the false or double-minded. Depend upon it there is no craft half so profitable and successful as simplicity. Worldly prudence and artifice belong to the children of this world; but the children of God go straight on with a single heart and in all confidence;— falsehood, deceit and duplicity are sure signs of a mean, weak mind.

In the Fourth Book of his Confessions, S. Augustine spoke in very strong terms of his passionate devotion to a friend, saying that they had but as one soul, and that after his friend's death his life was a horror to him, although he feared to die. But later on these expressions seemed unreal and affected to him, and he withdrew them in his Retractions. You see how sensitive that great mind was to unreality or affectation. Assuredly straightforward honesty and sincerity in speech is a great beauty in the Christian life. "I said I will take heed to my ways, that I offend not in my tongue." "Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and keep the door of my lips."

It was a saying of S. Louis, that one should contradict nobody, unless there was sin or harm in consenting; and that in order to avoid contention and dispute. At any rate, when it is necessary to contradict anybody, or to assert one's own opinion, it should be done gently and considerately, without irritation or vehemence. Indeed, we gain nothing by sharpness or petulance.

The silence, so much commended by wise men of old, does not refer so much to a literal use of few words, as to not using many useless words. On this score, we must look less to the quantity than the quality, and, as it seems to me, our aim should be to avoid both extremes. An excessive reserve and stiffness, which stands aloof from familiar friendly conversation, is untrusting, and implies a certain sort of contemptuous pride; while an incessant chatter and babble, leaving no opportunity for others to put in their word, is frivolous and troublesome.

S. Louis objected to private confidences and whisperings in society, especially at table, lest suspicion should be aroused that scandal was being repeated. "Those who have anything amusing or pleasant to say," he argued, "should let everybody share the entertainment, but if they want to speak of important matters, they should wait a more suitable time."

PARKING REMINDER FOR SUNDAY MASS

As our parish community continues to grow, our parking lot does not — sometimes leading to understandable frustration. We kindly ask for your patience and consideration when arriving for Sunday Mass. Overflow parking on Sundays is available at Trike Stop (1/2 block north) or Woodway Campus (to the southwest of the church on 100th) - both are just a short walk away. Making use of these spaces is an opportunity to practice humility and extend charity toward fellow parishioners and neighbors. View the parking map on the bulletin board near the restrooms.
