North American Martyrs Parish of the Archdiocese of Seattle is staffed by the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Our mission is to sanctify souls through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the Sacraments in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, founded in 1988 as a Clerical Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, is dedicated to the sanctification of priests through the traditional liturgy of the Roman Rite and to placing them at the service of the Church.

Welcome

Whether you are visiting, a newcomer, or returning after some time away, we are grateful that you are here with us today.

Out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, please observe silence upon entering the church. This includes the overflow area, which is an extension of the nave. Kindly take conversations outside and ensure that cellphones are silenced before entering.

Let us also maintain proper decorum by observing Christian modesty—out of reverence for the house of God, out of charity toward ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Red missal booklets are available in the pews; please ask an usher if you need help locating one. The readings for Sunday Masses are generally found on page 5 of this bulletin.

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Sunday Masses for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacraments listed below are available for registered parishioners. Please contact the pastor with any questions or to begin the preparation process. Additional information and forms are available at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org.

Infant Baptism — The Church urges that infants be baptized without delay; baptism should ordinarily take place within the first month. The baptismal name is to be taken from a saint, providing the child with a heavenly patron. Letters of good standing must be obtained from the pastor of each godparent's parish before the baptism.

First Holy Communion for Children — Classes typically start in January of each year. Children must turn age 7 by the time the Sacrament is received in mid-May.

Adults Entering the Church — Adults seeking to enter the Church receive 6–12 months of instruction with a priest, covering the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and preparation for the sacraments.

Marriage — Couples preparing for marriage meet with a priest for a minimum of six months prior to the wedding date, allowing time for instruction, discernment, and completion of the required preparation.

Sacraments for the Dying and Funerals — Contact the pastor immediately when a parishioner is gravely ill or near death so that the sacraments (Confession, Extreme Unction, and Viaticum) may be administered. Contact the pastor to make all funeral arrangements.

Parish Work Party — Volunteers Needed

We are seeking volunteers for a parish work party on Saturday, July 25, following the 8 AM Mass. We will meet in the south parking lot and begin around 9 AM, concluding by 11 AM.

We will be spreading wood chips along the Stations of the Cross pathway and weeding/tidying the garden beds. Please wear outdoor work clothes and sturdy shoes, and bring work gloves and a wheelbarrow if you have one. See the E-News for additional details.

Whether you can stay the whole time or only part of the morning, your help is greatly appreciated. Many hands make light work, and your efforts help keep our parish grounds beautiful and welcoming.

Young Adults—Save the Date

The next Young Adults event is scheduled for Saturday, July 25. Details coming soon. To be added to the mailing list, email youngadults@northamericanmartyrs.org.

Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This year the Feast of the Assumption falls on a Saturday (August 15) and is not a holy day of obligation. Nonetheless Masses will be offered at 8AM (Low Mass) and 10:30 AM (Sung Mass). Let us honor Our Lady's glorious assumption into Heaven and rejoice in her intercession.

NAM's Annual Oktoberfest—Save the Date!

We're rolling out the Bavarian cheer a little early this year. Mark your calendars for Saturday, September 26 from 4–8 PM. Brewers, it's time to start crafting your brew. If you're new to brewing or need a little (or a lot) of help, call Gallaghers' Where U Brew: 425-776-4209. More information on the pie contest and other details will be available as the date nears.

Choir Break

During the choir's summer break, the 10:30 AM Sunday Mass will be offered as a Low Mass. As a reminder, at Low Mass at NAM, only the servers are to make the responses, not the faithful.

Nota Bene

In addition to the Mass schedule listed on the cover, private Masses are usually offered at the church on Wednesdays at 11 AM and Fridays at 8 AM. Sung Vespers occur on Fridays at 5 PM. These are dependent on priest availability and therefore not included in the formal schedule, but are noted here for the benefit of those who may wish to participate when they are offered. Any cancellations will be announced publicly.

Interested in joining Catholic Schoolhouse?

Interested in learning more about our weekly Catholic homeschool co-op meeting here at NAM? We have space for a few more families to join us in September 2026. For information, contact Adrienne Wieber at edmondswa@catholicsschoolhouse.com.

Young Children at Mass

While our parish is blessed with many growing families, sometimes noisy babies and toddlers can be distracting and prevent others from hearing the Mass/sermon. If your children are being particularly vocal during Mass, please remember that the library is available for use until your child quiets down. For new families, please note that a diaper changing room is located across from the restrooms. We appreciate your care in leaving these areas tidy after use.

A Standard of Christian Modesty

As warmer weather is here, let us remember that modesty is an act of charity and a virtue to be practiced at all times — not only in church, but in daily life. Out of reverence for God and respect for ourselves and our neighbor, we ask all to observe modest attire: modest necklines, covered shoulders and upper arms, hemlines at or below the knee, and clothing that is neither tight nor sheer. Men are likewise asked to dress respectfully and modestly.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Goal: $63,136
Pledged to Date: $35,253
Balance Needed: $27,883

Thank you to the 85 families who have donated on our parish's behalf to the Annual Catholic Appeal. We have raised 56% of our goal. If everyone who hasn't donated yet gave just $70, we would be done with the Appeal.

Registered Households: 483
Households Donating: 85

Please help us close out this campaign for 2026. Pledge envelopes are in pews and on the back table and can be placed in the offering. Online giving is available at the Archdiocesan or NAM website. Thank you!

INTROIT Ps 47. 10, 11

We have received Thy mercy, O God, in the midst of Thy temple; according to Thy name, O God, so also is Thy praise unto the ends of the earth: Thy right hand is full of justice. Ps. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of God, in his holy mountain.

COLLECT

Grant to us, O Lord, we beseech Thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we who can not exist without Thee, may be able to live according to Thy will. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE Rom 8. 12-17

Brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; for if you live according to the flesh, you shall die; but if by the Spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear, but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba (Father). For the Spirit Himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God; and if sons, heirs also; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GRADUAL Ps 30. 3; 70. 1

Be Thou unto me a God, a protector, and a place of refuge, to save me. ☉. In Thee, O God, have I hoped: O Lord, let me never be confounded. Ps 47. 2 Alleluia, alleluia. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised, in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 16. 1-9

At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him, and said to him: How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself: What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I shall be put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore calling together every one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first: How much dost thou owe my lord? But he said: A hundred barrels of oil. And he said to him: Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then he said to another: And how much dost thou owe? Who said: A hundred quarters of wheat. He said to him: Take thy bill, and write eighty. And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say to you: Make unto you friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you shall fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

OFFERTORY Ps 17. 28, 32

Thou wilt save the humble people, O Lord, and wilt bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but Thee, O Lord?

SECRET

Receive, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the gifts of Thy bounty which we bring to Thee, and by the power of Thy grace, may these holy mysteries sanctify our lives in this world and bring us to the joys of eternity. Through our Lord.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Ps 33:9

Taste and see that the Lord is sweet: blessed is the man that hopeth in Him.

POST COMMUNION

May this heavenly mystery, O Lord, heal us both in soul and in body: and may we ever feel within us the power of the sacrament we celebrate. Through our Lord.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE by St. Francis de Sales

PART III. CONTAINING COUNSELS CONCERNING THE PRACTICE OF VIRTUE.

CHAPTER XXXIII. Of Balls, and other Lawful but Dangerous Amusements.

DANCES and balls are things in themselves indifferent, but the circumstances ordinarily surrounding them have so generally an evil tendency, that they become full of temptation and danger. The time of night at which they take place is in itself conducive to harm, both as the season when people's nerves are most excited and open to evil impressions; and be cause, after being up the greater part of the night, they spend the mornings afterwards in sleep, and lose the best part of the day for God's Service. It is a senseless thing to turn day into night, light into darkness, and to exchange good works for mere trifling follies. Moreover, those who frequent balls almost inevitably foster their Vanity, and vanity is very conducive to unholy desires and dangerous attachments.

I am inclined to say about balls what doctors say of certain articles of food, such as mushrooms and the like—the best are not good for much; but if eat them you must, at least mind that they are properly cooked. So, if circumstances over which you have no control take you into such places, be watchful how you prepare to enter them. Let the dish be seasoned with moderation, dignity and good intentions. The doctors say (still referring to the mushrooms), eat sparingly of them, and that but seldom, for, however well dressed, an excess is harmful. So dance but little, and that rarely, my daughter, lest you run the risk of growing over fond of the amusement.

Pliny says that mushrooms, from their porous, spongy nature, easily imbibe meretricious matter, so that if they are near a serpent, they are infected by its poison. So balls and similar gatherings are wont to attract all that is bad and vicious; all the quarrels, envyings, slanders, and indiscreet tendencies of a place will be found collected in the ballroom. While people's bodily pores are opened by the exercise of dancing, the heart's pores will be also opened by excitement, and if any serpent be at hand to whisper foolish words of levity or impurity, to insinuate unworthy thoughts and desires, the ears which listen are more than prepared to receive the contagion.

Believe me, my daughter, these frivolous amusements are for the most part dangerous; they dissipate the spirit of devotion, enervate the mind, check true charity, and arouse a multitude of evil inclinations in the soul, and therefore I would have you very reticent in their use.

To return to the medical simile;—it is said that after eating mushrooms you should drink some good wine. So after frequenting balls you should frame pious thoughts which may counteract the dangerous impressions made by such empty pleasures on your heart. Bethink you, then—

1. That while you were dancing, souls were groaning in hell by reason of sins committed when similarly occupied, or in consequence thereof.
2. Remember how, at the selfsame time, many religious and other devout persons were kneeling before God, praying or praising Him. Was not their time better spent than yours?
3. Again, while you were dancing, many a soul has passed away amid sharp sufferings; thousands and tens of thousands were lying all the while on beds of anguish, some perhaps untended, unconsolated, in fevers, and all manner of painful diseases. Will you not rouse yourself to a sense of pity for them? At all events, remember that a day will come when you in your turn will lie on your bed of sickness, while others dance and make merry.
4. Bethink you that our Dear Lord, Our Lady, all the Angels and Saints, saw all that was passing. Did they not look on with sorrowful pity, while your heart, capable of better things, was engrossed with such mere follies?
5. And while you were dancing time passed by, and death drew nearer. Trifle as you may, the awful dance of death must come, the real pastime of men, since therein they must, whether they will or no, pass from time to an eternity of good or evil. If you think of the matter quietly, and as in God's Sight, He will suggest many a like thought, which will steady and strengthen your heart.
