Welcome

Whether you are visiting, a newcomer, or returning after some time away, we are grateful that you are here with us today.

Out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, please observe silence upon entering the church. This includes the overflow area, which is an extension of the nave. Kindly take conversations outside and ensure that cellphones are silenced before entering.

Let us also maintain proper decorum by observing Christian modesty—out of reverence for the house of God, out of charity toward ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Red missal booklets are available in the pews; please ask an usher if you need help locating one. The readings for Sunday Masses are generally found on page 5 of this bulletin.

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Sunday Masses for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacraments listed below are available for registered parishioners. Please contact the pastor with any questions or to begin the preparation process. Additional information and forms are available at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org.

Infant Baptism — The Church urges that infants be baptized without delay; baptism should ordinarily take place within the first month. The baptismal name is to be taken from a saint, providing the child with a heavenly patron. Letters of good standing must be obtained from the pastor of each godparent's parish before the baptism.

First Holy Communion for Children — Classes typically start in January of each year. Children must turn age 7 by the time the Sacrament is received in mid-May.

Adults Entering the Church — Adults seeking to enter the Church receive 6–12 months of instruction with a priest, covering the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and preparation for the sacraments.

Marriage — Couples preparing for marriage meet with a priest for a minimum of six months prior to the wedding date, allowing time for instruction, discernment, and completion of the required preparation.

Sacraments for the Dying and Funerals — Contact the pastor immediately when a parishioner is gravely ill or near death so that the sacraments (Confession, Extreme Unction, and Viaticum) may be administered. Contact the pastor to make all funeral arrangements.

Fr. Shannon Away

Fr. Shannon will be on his annual retreat this week, returning Saturday. Please note that there will not be an 11 AM Mass on Wednesday, September 23.

Cell Phone Holders Outside the Confessional

To protect the privacy and reverence of the Sacrament of Confession, cell-phone holders have been added to the outside of the confessional. Please place your phone in one of these holders before entering the confessional.

Cell phones and smartwatches can accidentally record or activate voice assistants, even when the device is in a pocket or bag — a concern noted by several dioceses. Keeping devices outside helps safeguard the sacred seal of confession and prevents digital distractions.

Red Missal Booklets

Please help us care for the red missal booklets in the pews, as several damaged copies have recently needed replacement. Avoiding unnecessary costs allows parish funds to be used where they are truly needed.

Church Hours Update

Beginning this week, the church hours for Monday through Thursday will be 7:30 AM until noon. Friday and Saturday hours remain the same. This adjustment is preventative, helping ensure the church is appropriately safeguarded and open when parish staff are present.

NAM Annual Oktoberfest

All are invited to help spread some Bavarian cheer this Saturday, September 26 from 4–8 PM. Last year's Pie & Beer Contest champs are eager to defend their titles.

Bakers, it's not too late to enter the pie competition — a few spots are still available. Pie judging begins at 5 PM, and all pies must be dropped off in the hall by that time. Please note that two pies are required for each entry.

The Bratwurst dinner pricing is simpler this year, and the Bavarian pretzel — a festival favorite — is included; its generous size is perfect for sharing.

NAM's 3rd Annual Blue Mass

Join us next Sunday, September 27 at the 1 PM Mass as we pray for and honor all current and retired first responders and safety personnel. A reception will follow downstairs in the parish hall.

The origins of the Blue Mass date to September 1934 when the chaplain for the Catholic Police and Firemen's Society in Washington, D.C. organized a Mass for the first responders, to coincide with the feast of St. Michael (September 29), the patron saint of police and firefighters. The celebration spread nationwide as a way to show appreciation for first responders. All are invited and encouraged to attend.

Lost and Found

Our Lost and Found box overfloweth! The box can be found in the closet in the hallway between the rest-rooms. Please check for your missing items.

40 Days for Life

Join your local 40 Days for Life vigil September 23—November 1 and help protect mothers and children. 40 DFL is a worldwide movement of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigils, and community outreach. Check for your nearest vigil location at 40daysforlife.com.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL Matching Donations!

An anonymous donor has offered to help us meet our 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal goal by matching all parish donations up to $15,000 between 8/2/2026 and 9/26/2026 (the North American Martyrs' feast day). We are just over $12,000, with one week to go! Can you help us meet our goal?

If you work for a company such as Microsoft or Boeing which does charitable donation matches, you can triple your donation by taking advantage of both!

Go to <https://archseattle.org/GiveACA> to give online or find an envelope on the table as you enter the church. Thank you for your generosity.

INTROIT Ps 118:137, 124

You are just, O Lord, and Your ordinance is right.
Deal with Your servant according to Your kindness.
Ps 118:1. Happy are they whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

COLLECT

Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that Your people may avoid the temptations of the devil, and with pure minds follow You, the only God.

EPISTLE Eph 4:1-6

Brethren: I, the prisoner in the Lord, exhort you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all humility and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, careful to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace:
one body and one Spirit, even as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, Who is above all, and throughout all, and in us all, Who is blessed forever and ever. Amen.

GRADUAL Ps 32:12, 16

Happy the nation whose God is the Lord, the people the Lord has chosen for His own inheritance. By the word of the Lord the heavens were made; by the breath of His mouth all their host. Alleluia, alleluia.
Ps 101:2 O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come to You. Alleluia.

GOSPEL Matt 22:34-46

At that time, the Pharisees came to Jesus and one of them, a doctor of the Law, putting Him to the test, asked Him, Master, which is the great commandment in the Law? Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And the second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets. Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus questioned them, saying, What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is He? They said to Him, David's. He said to them, How then does David in the spirit call Him Lord, saying, The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool?' If David, therefore, calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his son? And no one could answer Him a word;

neither did anyone dare from that day forth to ask Him
any more questions.

OFFERTORY Dan 9:17-19

I, Daniel, prayed to my God, saying, Hear, O Lord, the prayers of Your servant; show Your face upon Your sanctuary, and favorably look down upon this people, upon whom Your name is invoked, O God.

SECRET

O Lord, we humbly pray Your Majesty that the holy rite which we are celebrating may free us from past and future sins.

PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Ps 75:12-13

Make vows to the Lord, your God, and fulfill them; let all round about Him bring gifts to the terrible Lord Who checks the pride of princes, Who is terrible to the kings of the earth.

POST COMMUNION

By the workings of Your sanctifying power, almighty God, may our vices be cured and eternal remedies provided for us.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE by St. Francis de Sales

PART IV. CONTAINING NEEDFUL COUNSELS CONCERNING SOME ORDINARY TEMPTATIONS.

CHAPTER I. We must not trifle with the Words of Worldly Wisdom. (Continued)

The planets and a wandering comet shine with much the same brightness, but the comet's is a passing blaze, which does not linger long, while the planets cease not to display their brightness. Even so hypocrisy and real goodness have much outward resemblance; but one is easily known from the other, inasmuch as hypocrisy is short-lived, and disperses like a mist, while real goodness is firm and abiding. There is no surer groundwork for the beginnings of a devout life than the endurance of misrepresentation and calumny, since thereby we escape the danger of vainglory and pride, which are like the midwives of Egypt, who were bidden by Pharaoh to kill the male children born to Israel directly after their birth. We are crucified to the world, and the world must be as crucified to us. It esteems us as fools, let us esteem it as mad.

CHAPTER II. The need of a Good Courage.

HOWEVER much we may admire and crave for light, it is apt to dazzle our eyes when they have been long accustomed to darkness; and on first visiting a foreign country, we are sure to feel strange among its inhabitants, however kindly or courteous they may be. Even so, my child, your changed life may be attended with some inward discomfort, and you may feel some reaction of discouragement and weariness after you have taken a final farewell of the world and its follies. Should it be so, I pray you take it patiently, for it will not last, — it is merely the disturbance caused by novelty; and when it is gone by, you will abound in consolations. At first you may suffer somewhat under the loss what you enjoyed among your vain, frivolous companions; but would you forfeit the eternal gifts of God for such things as these? The empty amusements which have engrossed you hitherto may rise up attractively before your imagination, and strive to win you back to rest in them; but are you bold enough to give up a blessed eternity for such deceitful snares? Believe me, if you will but persevere you will not fail to enjoy a sweetness so real and satisfying, that you will be constrained to confess that the world has only gall to give as compared with this honey, and that one single day of devotion is worth more than a thousand years of worldly life.

But you see before you the mountain of Christian perfection, which is very high, and you exclaim in fearfulness that you can never ascend it. Be of good cheer, my child. When the young bees first begin to live they are mere grubs, unable to hover over flowers, or to fly to the mountains, or even to the little hills where they might gather honey; but they are fed for a time with the honey laid up by their predecessors, and by degrees the grubs put forth their wings and grow strong, until they fly abroad and gather their harvest from all the country round. Now we are yet but as grubs in devotion, unable to fly at will, and attain the desired aim of Christian perfection; but if we begin to take shape through our desires and resolutions, our wings will gradually grow, and we may hope one day to become spiritual bees, able to fly. Meanwhile let us feed upon the honey left us in the teaching of so many holy men of old, praying God that He would grant us doves' wings, so that we may not only fly during this life, but find an abiding resting-place in Eternity.

PARKING REMINDER FOR SUNDAY MASS

As our parish community continues to grow, our parking lot does not — sometimes leading to understandable frustration. We kindly ask for your patience and consideration when arriving for Sunday Mass. Overflow parking on Sundays is available at Trike Stop (1/2 block north) or Woodway Campus (to the southwest of the church on 100th) - both are just a short walk away. Making use of these spaces is an opportunity to practice humility and extend charity toward fellow parishioners and neighbors. View the parking map on the bulletin board near the restrooms.
