North American Martyrs Parish of the Archdiocese of Seattle is staffed by the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter. Our mission is to sanctify souls through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the Sacraments in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite. The Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, founded in 1988 as a Clerical Society of Apostolic Life of Pontifical Right, is dedicated to the sanctification of priests through the traditional liturgy of the Roman Rite and to placing them at the service of the Church.

Welcome

Whether you are visiting, a newcomer, or returning after some time away, we are grateful that you are here with us today.

Out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, please observe silence upon entering the church. This includes the overflow area, which is an extension of the nave. Kindly take conversations outside and ensure that cellphones are silenced before entering.

Let us also maintain proper decorum by observing Christian modesty—out of reverence for the house of God, out of charity toward ourselves, and for the edification of our neighbor.

Red missal booklets are available in the pews; please ask an usher if you need help locating one. The readings for Sunday Masses are generally found on page 5 of this bulletin.

All parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome to join us after the 7 AM, 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM Sunday Masses for Coffee Hour downstairs in the Fr. Reichmann Hall. Enjoy refreshments while getting to know fellow parishioners.

SACRAMENTS

The Sacraments listed below are available for registered parishioners. Please contact the pastor with any questions or to begin the preparation process. Additional information and forms are available at NorthAmericanMartyrs.org.

Infant Baptism— The Church urges that infants be baptized without delay; baptism should ordinarily take place within the first month. The baptismal name is to be taken from a saint, providing the child with a heavenly patron. Letters of good standing must be obtained from the pastor of each godparent's parish before the baptism.

First Holy Communion for Children— Classes typically start in January of each year. Children must turn age 7 by the time the Sacrament is received in mid-May.

Adults Entering the Church— Adults seeking to enter the Church receive 6–12 months of instruction with a priest, covering the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and preparation for the sacraments.

Marriage— Couples preparing for marriage meet with a priest for a minimum of six months prior to the wedding date, allowing time for instruction, discernment, and completion of the required preparation.

Sacraments for the Dying and Funerals — Contact the pastor immediately when a parishioner is gravely ill or near death so that the sacraments (Confession, Extreme Unction, and Viaticum) may be administered. Contact the pastor to make all funeral arrangements.

Feast of Christ the King - Today!

Traditionally, the Sunday preceding the Feast of All Saints, is the feast of the Kingship of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

The kingship of Our Lord has always been acknowledged and identified throughout the history of the Church, but Pope Pius XI acceded to the desires of a large number of cardinals, bishops and laity in extending to the entire Church a special feast in honor of Christ the King. This feast was established with the promulgation of the encyclical Quas Primas, On the Feast of Christ the King, in 1925.

One may gain a plenary indulgence by the public recitation of the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and so the Fraternity exhorts all faithful Catholics to offer, or renew, their consecration to the Sacred Heart of our Sovereign Lord. (See Page 7.)

All Saints' Day Celebration - this Saturday!

Join us on All Hallows' Eve, Saturday, October 31, from 4 to 7 PM, as we honor all the saints!

We'll begin with Vespers in the church at 4 PM, followed by a lasagna dinner and games for the children.

All ages are encouraged to dress as your favorite saint and share a fun or interesting fact or two about that saint's life.

See the E-News for the sign-up to bring prizes or help with the event; a paper sign-up is also available on the usher table. Please RSVP so we can gauge how much lasagna to prepare and note if you'd like to bring a side.

We look forward to celebrating with you!

40 Days for Life

Join your local 40 Days for Life vigil going on now through November 1. 40 DFL is a worldwide movement of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigils, and community outreach. Check for your nearest vigil location at 40daysforlife.com.

Donating Items

We ask that items not be donated through the Lost and Found bins nor brought to church to give away during coffee hour. See the E-News for an alternate way to donate items to fellow parishioners.

Young Children at Mass

While our parish is blessed with many growing families, sometimes noisy babies and toddlers prevent others from hearing the Mass/sermon. If your children are being particularly vocal during Mass, please remember that the library is available for use until your child quiets down. For new families, please note that a diaper changing room is located across from the restrooms. We appreciate your care in leaving these areas tidy after use.

Feast of All Saints - Sunday, November 1

This year, All Saints' Day, a holy day of obligation, falls on a Sunday, so the obligation is fulfilled by attending one of the regularly scheduled Sunday Masses. The practice of abstaining from servile labor on Sundays and Holy Days should, of course, be observed.

All Souls' Day - Monday, November 2

Masses for All Souls' Day will be offered at:

8 AM	Low Mass
6:30 PM	Sung Mass with absolution at the catafalque

All Souls Novena—A book will be available at the church to write down the names of your deceased loved ones to be prayed for in the All Souls Novena. Please do not make monetary donations.

Blessed Items Box

Please remember to take home your blessed items in the hallway closet. As a reminder, blessed items are to be treated with respect and reverence. When disposing of any blessed item, it should be burned (and then the ashes buried) or simply buried. Unwanted blessed items should not be discarded in the trash or brought to the church for disposal.

Scam & Fraud Alert

Please be aware there's been an increase in scam emails claiming to come from parish pastors. Please note that NAM will never request gift cards or personal financial favors, by email, text, or otherwise.

Wire-fraud attempts are also on the rise. They often begin with an official-sounding phone call asking for information that is later used to initiate a fraudulent wire transfer. If this occurs, contact your bank's fraud department immediately, then notify the Archdiocese, as these cases involve federal authorities.

INTROIT Apoc 5:12; 1:6
Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power, and divinity, and wisdom, and strength, and honor. To Him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Ps 71:1 O God, with Your judgment endow the King and with Your justice, the King's son.

COLLECT
Almighty and eternal God, Who willed to restore all things in Your beloved Son, the King of the Universe, graciously grant that the peoples of the earth torn asunder by the wound of sin, may submit to His most gentle rule.

EPISTLE Col 1:12-20.
Brethren: We give thanks to God the Father Who has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, in Whom we have our redemption through His blood, the remission of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature. For in Him were created all things in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether Thrones, or Dominations, or Principalities, or Powers. All things have been created through and unto Him, and He is before all creatures, and in Him all things hold together. Again, He is the head of the body, the Church; He, Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the first place. For it has pleased God the Father that in Him all fullness should dwell and that through Him He should reconcile to Himself all things, whether on the earth or in the heavens, making peace through the blood of His Cross, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GRADUAL Ps 71:8, 11
He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.*V.*All kings shall pay Him homage, all nations shall serve Him. Alleluia, alleluia. *Dan. 7:14.*dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away: and His kingdom shall not be destroyed. Alleluia.

GOSPEL John 18:33-37
At that time, Pilate said to Jesus, Are You the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would certainly have fought that I might not be delivered to the Hebrews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here. Pilate therefore said to Him, You are then a King? Jesus answered, You say it: I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.

OFFERTORY Ps 2:8
Ask of Me and I will give You the nations for an inheritance and the ends of the earth for Your possession.

SECRET
O Lord, we offer You this sacrificial Victim of mankind's reconciliation with You; grant, we beseech You, that our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Whom we offer in this sacrifice, may bestow upon all peoples the gifts of unity and peace.

PREFACE OF CHRIST THE KING
It is meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: Who didst anoint, with the oil of gladness, Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to be the eternal Priest and King of the universe; that by offering Himself a spotless Victim and peace-offering on the altar of the Cross, He might accomplish the mysteries of man's redemption, and that having subjected all creatures to His dominion, He might present to Thine infinite Majesty an everlasting and universal Kingdom; a kingdom of truth and life; and kingdom of holiness and grace; a kingdom of justice, love, and peace. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of Thy glory, evermore saying:

COMMUNION Ps 28:10-11
The Lord is enthroned as King forever; may the Lord bless His people with peace!

POST COMMUNION
We have received the food of eternal life, and we beseech You, O Lord, that we who are proud to serve under the flag of Christ the King may forever reign with Him in the Kingdom of heaven.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE by St. Francis de Sales

PART IV. CONTAINING NEEDFUL COUNSELS CONCERNING SOME ORDINARY TEMPTATIONS.

CHAPTER XIV. Of Dryness and Spiritual Barrenness.

If you have carefully stored up the fruits of past consolations, you will receive more; "to him that hath yet more shall be given," but from him who has not kept that which he had, who has lost it through carelessness, that which he hath shall be taken away, in other words, he will not receive the grace destined for him. Rain refreshes living plants, but it only brings rottenness and decay to those which are already dead. There are many such causes whereby we lose the consolations of religion, and fall into dryness and deadness of spirit, so that it is well to examine our conscience, and see if we can trace any of these or similar faults. But always remember that this examination must not be made anxiously, or in an over-exacting spirit. Thus if, after an honest investigation of our own conduct, we find the cause of our wrongdoing, we must thank God, for an evil is half cured when we have found out its cause. But if, on the contrary, you do not find any particular thing which has led to this dryness, do not trifle away your time in a further uneasy search, but, without more ado, and in all simplicity, do as follows:—

1. Humble yourself profoundly before God, acknowledging your nothingness and misery. Alas, what am I when left to myself! no better, Lord, than a parched ground, whose cracks and crevices on every side testify its need of the gracious rain of Heaven, while, nevertheless, the world's blasts wither it more and more to dust.

2. Call upon God, and ask for His Gladness. "O give me the comfort of Thy help again! My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me." "Depart, O ye unfruitful wind, which parcheth up my soul, and come, O gracious south wind, blow upon my garden." Such loving desires will fill you with the perfume of holiness.

3. Go to your confessor, open your heart thoroughly, let him see every corner of your soul, and take all his advice with the utmost simplicity and humility, for God loves obedience, and He often makes the counsel we take, specially that of the guides of souls, to be more useful than would seem likely; just as He caused the waters of Jordan, commended by Elijah to Naaman, to cure his leprosy in spite of the improbability to human reason.

ACT OF CONSECRATION OF THE HUMAN RACE TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Most Sweet Jesus, Redeemer of the human race, look down upon us humbly prostrate before Thine altar. We are Thine, and Thine we wish to be; but to be more surely united to Thee, behold each one of us freely consecrates ourselves today to Thy Most Sacred Heart.

Many indeed have never known Thee; Many too, despising Thy precepts, have rejected Thee. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to Thy Sacred Heart. Be Thou King, O Lord, not only of the faithful children, who have never forsaken Thee, but also of the prodigal children, who have abandoned Thee; Grant that they may quickly return to their Father's house lest they die of wretchedness and hunger.

Be Thou King of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbor of truth and unity of faith, so that there may be but one flock and one Shepherd.

Be Thou King of all those who are still involved in the darkness of idolatry or of Islamism, and refuse not to draw them into the light and kingdom of God. Turn Thine eyes of mercy towards the children of the race, once Thy chosen people: of old they called down upon themselves the Blood of the Savior; may it now descend upon them a laver of redemption and of life.

Grant, O Lord, to Thy Church assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry; praise to the Divine Heart that wrought our salvation; To it be glory and honor forever. R. Amen.
