PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken from her." (Luke 10:41-42) Consider prioritizing time with God, following Mary's example. Are you being called to dedicate your life to prayer and service in the Church as a consecrated religious? Talk to your priest or reach out to Father Joshua Weaver, Vocation Director, at (717) 657-4804 or email him at frjweaver@hbgdiocese.org.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

Cell phones, emails, faxes, texts and voice mails can reduce our lives to a continual series of interrupted moments. Listen to Jesus in today's gospel: "You are anxious about many things" robbing us of the precious time needed to BE with others. Quality time is QUANTITY time.

THE ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Catholic Church is one of the greatest gifts God has given us. Jesus Christ established the Church almost 2,000 years ago, and today there are an estimated 1.2 billion members worldwide. No other institution has educated, fed or ministered to more people than the Catholic Church. Are you or a loved one interested in exploring the Catholic faith? Throughout the OCIA Process, a person is introduced to the richness of our prayer, history, worship, beliefs, and morality. This path of spiritual growth culminates in the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation during and morality. This path of spiritual growth culminates in the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation during the Easter season. Any person not already baptized (in any Christian denomination) or not already a confirmed Catholic is welcome to attend OCIA. Our new OCIA year begins in September. For more information, please contact Sister Rosanne @ (717) 259-0611, ext. 7. We look forward to journeying with you.

Emmaus Men's Scripture Breakfast: For 15 years running, a group of Catholic/Christian men have gathered monthly at Perkins Restaurant in Hanover to share the relevancy of God's Gospel message in their lives. A different designated man (volunteer) leads the lesson each time. Breakfast and time for fellowship follow. The group meets the last Saturday of each month, beginning at 7 a.m. Might you have an interest? Sharing or just listening provides for an uplifting experience of our faith. It doesn't matter where a man is on his spiritual journey. All are welcome. If you'd be interested in attending the next breakfast (Saturday July 26 -- breakfast is 'on me'), please contact Deacon Tom (deacontom2010@gmail.com; 717-259-0611) and we'll make the arrangements together. Bring along a Bible.

Sts. Joachim and Anne | Catholic Saints

Though they never appear in canonical Scripture, Sts. Joachim and Anne—the grandparents of Jesus—hold a place of great importance in the Church's tradition. Discover more about the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary in this episode of Catholic Saints with Mary McGeehan and Augustine Institute professor Dr. Carl Vennerstrom.
