A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

The words in today's gospel, "This is my beloved, with Him I am pleased," are words every child needs to hear often. Affirmation is important to raise happy and confident children.

WITH SINCERE GRATITUDE

We are grateful for our Children's Choir, who added their special touch to our 4:00 PM Christmas Mass. As well, we are grateful for Abbi Robinson and Lori Stollar, who led us in song at the other Masses and Kathe DeCarlo and Suzi Livelsberger, for their beautiful prelude music on Christmas morning. And certainly last, but never least. . . to Roy Wainwright, for always adding his talent to the solemnity of our music. We are blessed to have so many "gifted" people in our parish!

ALTAR SERVERS NEEDED

As we begin this new year, we are reaching out again for ALTAR SERVERS. Girls and boys (3rd grade and up) are invited to come forward to give service to our parish. Parents, please talk with your children and encourage them and if anyone is interested, please call Sister Rosanne by Wednesday, January 28th so that we can get Training Sessions set up and your children can begin serving at the Table of the Lord as soon as possible.

JESUS' BAPTISM

In Christian baptism, we become adopted children of the Father, members of the Church, the Body of Christ, and temples of the Holy Spirit. Baptism washes away our original sin and claims us for the kingdom of God. Through this saving sacrament, God fills us with sanctifying grace, with the fullness of the Trinitarian life. To understand the meaning and implications of our baptism is to fundamentally grasp our identity, vocation and mission as disciples of the Lord Jesus and members of the household of God.

In Jesus' baptism in the Jordan, we see Him anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Christ, we hear the Father proclaim His fundamental identity as the beloved Son, and we perceive Jesus' mission as one of humility, a self-emptying love and sacrificial identification with everything in us that was lost, broken and dead.

We spend time and energy seeking a lost object to the extent that we value it. I will spend much more time looking for my wallet or cellphone than I will a misplaced magazine. How infinitely valuable we must be to the Lord God that He sent His own Son to seek and save us in the valley of death! The whole Christ-event finds a clarity of mission when Jesus is submerged in the waters of the Jordan at the hands of John the Baptist.

Bishop Donald J. Hying is the Bishop-elect for the Diocese of Madison, Wisconsin.
