A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Today's gospel tells us to "Be watchful." This comes natural to families. Parents are watchful of their children's health, grades and friends. Children are watchful of parental moods. Today's gospel encourages us to use this ability to see God acting in the innocence, tenderness, love and forgiveness of your family. "Be watchful," the Lord is already with you.

VOCATION AWARENESS

"Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." (Mark 13:33) Advent begins with Christ's call to remain watchful and attentive. God's call is first heard when we learn to recognize His voice amid the distractions of daily life. Could the Lord be inviting you to consider priesthood or consecrated life, serving His people with a generous heart? Stay awake to His call through prayer, Eucharistic Adoration, and time with Scripture.Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at (717) 657-4804 ext. 282 or via email: vocations@hbgdiocese.org

The First Week of Advent

Centers on hope—not a vague optimism, but a theological hope rooted in God's fidelity.
Hope means: believing God is working even when we cannot see, expecting Christ's light in our darkness, trusting His promises, and preparing our hearts with confidence.
Advent reminds us that Christ comes into every place that is waiting for Him.

Next Week's Readings
Isaiah 61:1-2a,10-11
1 Thessalonians 5:16-24
John 1:6-8, 19-28

The PCCW will be sponsoring the GIVING TREE this Christmas Season through New Hope Ministries.
