Who are Southern Metroplex (Tx) Links

The Southern Metroplex (TX) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated is a Dallas-Fort Worth-based chapter of The Links, Incorporated, a national organization of professional women of African descent. This specific chapter focuses on community service in 13 cities in the DFW region, including Arlington, Duncanville, DeSoto, Cedar Hill, Glenn Heights, Grand Prairie, Kennedale, Lancaster, Midlothian, Mansfield, Oak Leak, Ovilla and Red Oak, supporting initiatives like scholarships, mental health awareness, and events such as the Black Family Wellness Expo and a golf tournament fundraiser.

Mission: To transform communities through service, enrich lives, and improve the quality of life for people of African descent through friendship and service.

The Southern Metroplex (TX) chapter, like other chapters of The Links, Incorporated, implements programs across five core facets:

Services to Youth: Programs focus on mentoring, education, and career development, including initiatives related to literacy, STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) education, and support for Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

The Arts: The chapter creates and supports art-related educational opportunities and showcases for black youth and professional artists.

National Trends and Services: This facet addresses social inequities and works to reduce barriers to resources through advocacy, education (such as voter registration), and service, including addressing food insecurity.

International Trends and Services: Dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for people of African descent worldwide, such as by donating K-12 books to students in Ghana and Belize.

Health and Human Services: Programs address chronic health disparities in Black communities through initiatives like the "Walk for Healthy Living," cancer awareness, and mental wellness programs.
