

Make Your Mark Through the Arts!

High School Seniors and Current College Students majoring or minoring in an ARTS discipline, Apply for the $500 Tucker Family for the Arts (TFFA) Scholarship TODAY.

About the Scholarship:

The Tucker Family Foundation for the Arts (TFFA) was created in 2008 to honor the life and vision of Allison C. Tucker, Sr., educator, musician extraordinaire, and advocate for the Arts in the southern sector of Dallas, Texas. The foundation provides experiences, enrichment, understanding, and appreciation for various forms of artistic expression within the Performing and Visual Arts arena. TFFA targets people of color in underserved communities, providing educational outreach through scholarship opportunities. Under the leadership of Allison C. Tucker Jr. and The Silent Partner, TFFA also provides donations to non-profit entities of the Arts to benefit programs for youth.

The Southern Metroplex (TX) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated is pleased to partner with this outstanding organization to provide this scholarship opportunity to students in our service area.
