ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL | IMMACULATE CONCEPTION | CHRIST OUR HOPE

Dear Friends,

This weekend we mark several important anniversaries. We celebrate the 250th anniversary of the founding of our nation. We also mark the completion of the second year of our coming together as a parish family of Christ Our Hope, Immaculate Conception and St. James Cathedral parishes. And I just completed my first year as your pastor.

I would like to express my gratitude for the warm welcome you have given me in this first year. Along with Fr. Ryan, Fr. Magnano and the staff at all three of our parishes, you have made this year of transition very easy for Fathers Thumbi, Chanda and me. Thank you!

As we move into our third year of Partners in the Gospel, I can tell you that I have learned a lot from you over the past year about our three parishes, and from our Vision Council, the Finance Councils in all three parishes, and our Parish Family Leadership Team (made up of staff members from all three of our parishes). As we make progress toward becoming one parish, I want to update you on some changes we are making as we head into this third year.

First, we are making some changes around liturgy - not the unique styles of liturgy in each of our three parishes. The diversity of music and worship styles is a great strength of our parish family, so we are not touching that! We have made some changes in the schedule. We have moved the Wednesday 12:10pm Mass from the Cathedral to Immaculate Conception. I will celebrate that Mass as often as my schedule allows so that I can get a little more time at Immaculate. I am also going to take as many of the 12:10pm Masses on Thursdays at Christ Our Hope for the same reason. And we have discontinued the 7:00pm Sunday Mass at Christ Our Hope.

Second, in terms of our staffing, we have made some adjustments to our staff structure for the Parish Family. I have appointed Corinna Laughlin as the Director of Worship for the Parish Family. This means that Corinna will be the primary resource for helping to organize and support liturgy at Christ Our Hope and Immaculate Conception, as she has at the Cathedral for many years. Corinna will work with staff and volunteers from all three of our parishes to ensure continued high quality worship for our parish family. In order to make this possible, Julie Sharples will be taking on additional responsibility as Liturgy Associate at St. James Cathedral, including training and scheduling liturgical ministers at St. James. She'll continue her excellent work in the sacristy.

I have also appointed Maria Laughlin as the Director of Pastoral Ministries for the Parish Family. In that role, Maria will continue to support development and stewardship efforts at the cathedral and will take on that role at Immaculate Conception as well, while providing support in those areas to Christ Our Hope. Maria will also coordinate the Faith Formation efforts at the cathedral, including marriage and baptism preparation, while providing supervision support for some of the pastoral ministries at the cathedral, including children's faith formation, weddings and funerals.

We will also hire a part-time pastoral associate at Immaculate Conception to help coordinate the pastoral life of the parish in much the same way that Barbara Connor used to provide and that is provided by Deanna Tighe at Christ Our Hope.

As many of you know, Alice Davis has retired as the Pastoral Assistant for Administration at Immaculate Conception. Her responsibilities around finances, facilities and human resources will be distributed among Larry Brouse (PAA at the Cathedral), Maria Laughlin, Shanita Stewart-Burrell (Volunteer Coordinator for Immaculate Conception and Safe Environment Coordinator for our parish family) Joseph Fletcher (Facilities Manager at Immaculate Conception), and Mary MacLean (Bookkeeper for Immaculate Conception and St. James Cathedral).

With the support of the Pastoral and Finance Councils at Immaculate, we have decided to provide security at Immaculate Conception (using the same company that provides security for us at St. James Cathedral and the Chancery), so that the church can be open during office hours, Monday through Friday, 9:00am - 3:00pm, as well as on Sundays 10:00am - 2:00pm. In addition, the church will also be open once per month on first Saturdays for people in the neighborhood to come by and visit our beautiful church.

As we enter into this third year of our journey together as a parish family, these changes are designed to bring us closer together by building on the strengths we share. May God continue to guide us in these efforts to become more and more effective in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ in the heart of our city.

Peace,

Father Gary Lazzeroni
Pastor

July 1, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

May the blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ be with each of you!

As we reach the two-year anniversary of the formation of parish families across the Archdiocese of Seattle, I share my deep gratitude for all the hard work and engagement from the clergy, parish and school staffs, lay leaders, volunteers and parishioners. Together we prayed, listened to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and discerned how to renew parish life in Western Washington. We are on a holy journey, and I encourage you to not lose hope along the way – but instead see the light of Jesus Christ leading us forward.

When I first arrived in the Archdiocese of Seattle, many of my brother priests shared their frustrations and pain in serving communities where the practice of faith was declining. Many were saddened by empty pews on Sunday and families who no longer engaged in their faith as they did decades ago. In many places, sacramental life was dwindling, too, and volunteers were aging out of service. For some, time was spent “putting out fires” related to building maintenance and financial woes rather than “sparking the fire” of faith in the younger generation.

Our priests described the tangible impacts of decades of change:

- Parishes were once built for a local community who could walk to Mass or take a short car ride. The advent of freeways changed that dynamic.
- Many cultural parishes built to serve a specific immigrant population changed as the next generations no longer needed language-specific pastoral care.
- The aging status of many parish and school buildings required greater investments of time, energy and money – all of which pulled priests and other resources away from evangelization efforts.
- The number of priests who have died has far outpaced the number of men entering the seminary. Last year alone, we celebrated the lives of eight archdiocesan priests who died – while ordaining one new archdiocesan priest this year.

Scholars across the country have pointed out an array of factors for declining engagement in the Catholic Church. While there is great hope in the latest news of young people entering the Church, the fact remains that Mass attendance in 2026 has not yet rebounded to 2019 levels.

It is easy to be overwhelmed by these challenges, and on some days, I certainly feel this way. Yet Jesus himself gave us the mission to go and make disciples of all nations. He calls each of us to encounter him, accompany one another and live the joy of the Gospel every day. It is this mission and our trust in Him that give us hope for the future.

After much prayer, discernment and consultation with priests, lay leaders, other dioceses, and parishioners through the local synod, we developed a strategic pastoral planning process with the goal of refocusing all that we do as the Catholic Church in Western Washington on our mission.

How can we reorganize and restructure parishes so that we are spending more time reflecting Christ's radical love rather than trying to preserve the status quo that was designed for a different era?

This is why our Partners in the Gospel journey began and continues.

Like Moses leading people in the desert, we know this is not an easy journey. In these first few years, we have felt like we are spending significant time focused on administration, finances and buildings. Yet, as many other dioceses have shared with us, this initial administrative focus is required but should not distract from the real work of re-envisioning and reinvigorating our pastoral presence in our communities.

How can we combine efforts so that, together, we can better serve our communities as the living presence of Christ, especially for those who are sick and dying; for those who are poor or living on the margins; for the young who seek purpose? This is what Jesus called us to do!

We are partners

I intentionally chose the name "Partners in the Gospel" because this effort does not sit solely on the shoulders of our priests or our parish staff. It is an effort that we all own in partnership as co-responsible stewards of our local Catholic Church. Together, as the people of God, we are courageously re-imagining how to respond to the needs of the world today rather than struggling to maintain a parish structure built for a bygone era.

Since the formation of the parish families two years ago, we have seen communities embrace each other, extend generous hospitality, combine ministries to serve more people, offer joint youth programs and much more. This year, we welcomed more people into the Church than we have in years – many of whom expressed appreciation for their rich experiences with the joint faith formation programs offered by parish families. Dozens of reports from priests confirm that, while One Parish Planning may be challenging, they are filled with hope as they see some of the fruits of this effort already. Reports like this give me great hope and I know that this is just the beginning.

At the same time, we have experienced the reality that change is hard and slow. It requires us to set aside our own personal desires and agendas to recognize the needs of the larger Catholic family. And herein lies the opportunity to go beyond our comfort zones – beyond "our Mass" or "our ministry" – to recognize that everything we have is gift from God and that we are called to share what we have with others. What gifts, talents, opportunities and more do our parishes have that can be combined and shared for the greater good? This is at the heart of our One Parish Planning process, which guides parish families as they work together to creatively re-imagine parish life as a new parish community.

I wish to thank our clergy for saying "yes" to what some may see as impossible pastoral assignments during this time. Their fortitude and pastoral hearts of service are greatly appreciated. I also wish to thank our parish and school staffs for graciously navigating new territory and seeing the opportunities for positive changes as parishes work more closely together. I offer special thanks to the volunteers serving on the Parish Family Advisory Councils, responsible for representing parishioners and leading the parish family through the One Parish Planning process.

Finally, I wish to thank all parishioners who have been engaged in the process: through our baptismal calling and dignity, listening to the Holy Spirit, attending community consultation sessions, sharing ideas and feedback, praying for the effort, volunteering in new ways and participating in parish life as One Parish Planning progresses.

In-person community sessions this fall

This effort is truly led by the Holy Spirit. Let us be strengthened by this truth as we journey to renew parish life, bringing the light of Christ into the world today. This fall, my team will be hosting in-person community sessions throughout the archdiocese to provide you with an update on the progress of Partners in the Gospel and answer your questions. I invite all of you to participate in these sessions.

Please continue to pray for this effort, asking God to guide us so that we truly listen to the prompting of the Holy Spirit and to our good and gracious God who shapes and forms the desires of our own hearts. Please know of my continued prayers for you, and I humbly ask for your prayers for me. As always, I remain,

In the Heart of Christ,
