ITINERARY 05: LISA'S PERSONAL ONE

There are 32 workshops and shows to attend throughout Kinnect Festival 2027, as well as 27 DJs, so it's best to carve your own path.

Being the festival organiser, whether I get to follow this itinerary or not is another story.... especially as I will be 6 months pregnant at Kinnect Festival 2027!

The Kinnect moment I'm most excited for: Absorbing the incredible energy and kind nature of those in attendance.

FRIDAY 19 FEBRUARY — CURIOSITY BEGINS

Afternoon — Help out at the gate and check in with security.

4pm — Check on each of our campsites and The Village.

6pm — Speed Dating... as Tristan & I are helping to run this.

7pm — Dinner in The Village.

8pm — Dance at Liberation in The Playground until I need to sleep... which is pretty early these days. I'm so excited for all four days of DJs, however this year I will be preserving my energy for the workshops during the day.

9pm — Quick check in at Playsure before bed.

SATURDAY 20 FEBRUARY — EXPLORE & CONNECT

10am — Check in at the gate and with security.

11am — Yoga, Vedanta & Tantra Philosophy, exploring the relationship between body and consciousness.

12pm — Spill The Tea Party in The Village.

1pm — dance to ISOL at Unity in The Village.

3pm — Spoken Word, Pilates, Erotic Reading, and Queer Hour will all be fantastic to attend. I'll walk around the market stalls and get some food in between these.

6pm — Conscious Tantra at Playsure in The Playground.

7pm — Devour a huge sausage from The Bockwurst in The Playground.

9.30pm — Aerial and pole performances in The Playground.

Late night — Dance at Liberation until bedtime, checking in on our Playsure Consent Guardians on my way back. Hopefully catching some of the fire show which starts at 11pm.

SUNDAY 21 FEBRUARY — A DEEPER CONNECTION

Morning — Enjoy a slow breakfast in The Village and some chill time by the river.

11am — Yoga in The Village

2pm — Foot massage workshop.

3pm — Dance to Facettes & BAYKER at Unity in The Village

6pm — Energy Orgasm at Playsure in The Playground.

Night — Dance at Liberation until bed.

MONDAY 22 FEBRUARY — FREEDOM BEYOND THE FESTIVAL

10am — Partner Tantra Meditation with Valeska and Amandeep.

11am — Get some food in The Village and settle in for great conversations to an incredible 3 hour set by DJ Shovaav, and saxophone player HMB at Unity, for The Naked Brunch... which we'd love everyone who is still on site to join us for. Nudity, as always, is optional. There is no dresscode at Kinnect Festival.

Afternoon — Chat to as many people as I can before they head home... hopefully in high spirits with big smiles, and loads of new and beautiful connections.

As mentioned we have a permanent sauna in The Village, plus Marco from The Bockwurst and El Yerbador is brining a portable one for The Playground! I won't be using these as I'm not allowed while pregnant but I recommend taking time to relax in these spaces, as well as down by the river. This weekend is as much about dancing as it is about taking time to reset and simply enjoy time with friends old and new.

TOP TIPS:

- 1. Do read the full festival guide to find out what you don't want to miss and make your own itinerary.*
- 2. Daytime is best spent in The Village and down by the river. Evenings are best spent in The Playground.... a few workshops may divert you from this schedule.*
