Issue 12

November 28th 2025

Dear Parent,

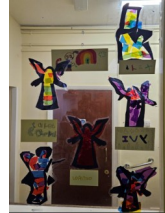

It has been an incredibly busy week in school with all the rehearsals going on for next week's nativity performances and today's joint concert with the choir. If that was not enough we all enjoyed a fantastic performance of Edith by Y5 yesterday. I have the feeling it is going to be just as busy for the next few weeks. The children seem to be really enjoying all the excitement and have a lot more energy than some of us adults!

Catholic Life of the School - CAFOD/Eco Club

CAFOD/Eco Club met this week and carried out a survey of the school grounds to see if we can improve it.

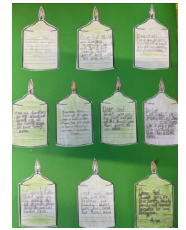

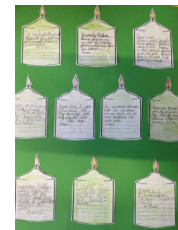

Religious Education

Y1 has made some beautiful stained glass windows in their R.E. lessons and these now adorn the corridor wall.

Collective Worship

Our Advent Mass is on Tuesday at 9.30 in the Church. Please come along and join us as we begin this holy season.

Edith's Wartime Scrapbook

Y5 put on a wonderful WW2 play yesterday afternoon for parents and for the school earlier in the day. They are fabulous at performing I hope you were very proud of them.

BCCS Joint Concert

Our joint concert is planned for this evening and we have been practising hard all day. This is the first time the choir have met the other 3 schools so they are very clever to put it all together on the day.

Important dates

28th November - BCCS Concert at St Benedict's 6pm

2nd December - Advent Mass 9.30am Church

2nd & 4th December - Nativity at 5pm

3rd December - Flu Vaccinations (AM) & Nativity at 2pm

December 4th - 'Elfridges' Christmas gift sale

December 5th Christmas Craft Day

Lantern Parade

Thank you so much for supporting the Lantern Parade on Saturday.

The children were amazing considering the weather, soggy but amazing. I don't think Mrs Jones was impressed with the amount of rain!

Our Stars of the Week are:

R	Zariah	Elize
1	Beraiah	Dominic
2	Holly	Chris
3	Ray	Dylan
4	Joey	Chris
5	Lola	Olivia
6	Tobiah	Jamie

Have a lovely weekend
