Dear Friends

This month sadly sees the retirement of the Revd Christine Gillespie – sad for us, although possibly a welcome relief for her as she can hopefully enjoy life at a slightly less hectic pace in future and maybe do a few of those things that she's not had time for due to her many commitments up to now. Having said that, people often tell me in retirement that they've never been as busy and I know that Christine will have a number of ongoing responsibilities beyond her final Sunday of August 10th. Christine has served Wistow Church since March 2019, and I know the same can be said for all her other churches across the circuit. Here, her commitment to the wonderful partnership between All Saints and the Methodist Chapel, working and worshipping so seamlessly together as 'Wistow Church' has been notable and something we're all very grateful for. It's not quite 'bon voyage' as I understand that Christine and her father will be remaining in the manse at Sherburn in Elmet for the foreseeable future, but rather 'God bless you' now and in the future, whenever and wherever he leads.

God bless
John Weetman
