PERSONAL

Earning a business administration degree focused on accounting from Brandon University. Son of Khalid and Tanveer. One brother named Suleman. He first played cricket but didn't like how much standing around it included and quickly took a liking to the outdoor basketball courts near his house when he was six years old. He developed a variety of skills at Lucien-Pagé high school, where his coach made it clear that all his players need to handle the ball, play on the wing and in the post. Attended Vanier College in Montréal, QC. Took to running as a hobby during the covid pandemic, reaching 20 kms. He spends his summers in Montréal, working with former high school coach Moussignac.
