Kaden Ludlow is a Wealth Management Specialist at Buttonwood Financial Group in Kansas City, Missouri. He joined the firm in 2025 and holds the FINRA Series 65 license, along with a Bachelor of Science in Business Finance and a minor in Financial Planning from Brigham Young University-Idaho. As part of Buttonwood's wealth management team, Kaden helps clients put their comprehensive financial plan to work, so they can spend less time managing money and more time on what matters most.

Background

Kaden's interest in investing took shape in college. At BYU-Idaho he served in leadership with the Wealth Management Society and competed in an investment competition, finishing first at BYU-Idaho and 14th in the nation. Before joining Buttonwood, he worked as a Financial Consultant with TD Ameritrade.

Beyond the Office

Born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska, Kaden is a Cornhusker through and through. He moved to Idaho at 18 for college, where he met his wife, Ashley. Five years in Idaho gave them a deep love of the outdoors, especially evenings watching the sun set over the mountains. Idaho will always feel like home, but they are excited to make Kansas City their new one. Kaden and Ashley are big fans of live music (seeing Post Malone in Salt Lake City is a favorite memory), and they are exploring Kansas City's music scene while preparing to welcome their first child.
