WHY DO WE HAVE HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION?

The first precept (“You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor”) requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days. Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2042

WHAT IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION?

In the Roman Catholic Church, Holy Days of Obligation are the days on which, as canon 1247 states:

“On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass. Moreover, they are to abstain from those works and affairs which hinder the worship to be rendered to God, the joy proper to the Lord’s day, or the suitable relaxation of mind and body.”

HOLY DAY OBSERVANCE

A person who assists at a Mass celebrated anywhere in a Catholic rite either on the Holy Day of Obligation itself or after 4:00 PM of the evening of the preceding day satisfies the obligation of participating in the Mass. Canon Law #1248-§1.

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION

The 1983 Code of Canon Law identifies every Sunday as “the primordial holy day of obligation” in the universal Church: “Remember, keep holy the Sabbath.” In addition to every Sunday, there are 6 other Holy Days of Mass attendance obligation observed in the United States.

The Nativity of the Lord Jesus Christ (Christmas, Dec. 25) - always of obligation, even falling on Saturday and Monday.

“... And on entering the house they saw the child with Mary His mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.” Mt 2:11

The Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God (Octave of Christmas, Jan. 1) - not of obligation only when falling on Saturday and Monday, otherwise always of obligation.

The Ascension of the Lord (40 days after Easter) but transferred now from Thursday to Sunday in South Carolina.

“So then the Lord Jesus, after He spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took His seat at the right hand of God.” Mk 16:19

The Assumption of Mary (August 15) - not of obligation only when falling on Saturday and Monday, otherwise always of obligation.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us. . .”
Heb 12:1

The Solemnity of All Saints (Nov. 1) - not of obligation only when falling on Saturday and Monday, otherwise always of obligation.

“A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.”
Rev 12:1

The Immaculate Conception of Mary (Dec. 8) - always of obligation, even falling on Saturday and Monday.

8TH DECEMBER

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee

Have you ever wondered what makes Mary, the mother of Jesus, so special in our faith? The Immaculate Conception - one of the most beautiful mysteries we celebrate - reveals that from the very first moment of her existence, Mary was preserved from original sin.

God prepared Mary's soul with perfect grace to be the mother of Jesus. But this extraordinary gift wasn't just about Mary - it was about God's love for all of us. By keeping Mary free from sin, God was creating the perfect vessel to bring Christ into our world, establishing a pure channel of grace that continues to flow into our lives today. This is why we turn to Mary with such confidence - she understands our human struggles while possessing the unprecedented closeness to God that allows her to powerfully intercede for us.

Sistercare Thanksgiving Food Drive

Our blessings turn into their blessings as generosity continues to pour from the Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes, which provided Sistercare, an organization that supports women impacted by domestic violence, a variety of dishes for a Thanksgiving feast. The Knights provided the ham and turkey, while the Columbiettes provided scrumptious side dishes and desserts.

Trivia Night! Saturday, January 24, 2026!

The 21st Trivia Night Fundraiser, hosted by the Knights of Columbus and the Columbiettes, will be Saturday, January 24, 2026 beginning at 7:00 PM in the Parish Life Center (PLC). Trivia Night is open to anyone over the age of 21. (Please, no children.)

If you are new to the parish or have never participated before, the evening is a fun, fast-paced trivia game. You play as a team, and teams consist of 8 people per table. (Build your own team, or sign up and be placed on a team.) The cost is $25.00 per person, and payment is due at registration. We accept cash, check, and credit cards.

Registration dates:

Saturday, January 3 after the 4:00 Mass

Sunday, January 4 after the 8:00 and 10:30 Masses

Saturday, January 10 after the 4:00 Mass

Sunday, January 11 after the 8:00 and 10:30 Masses

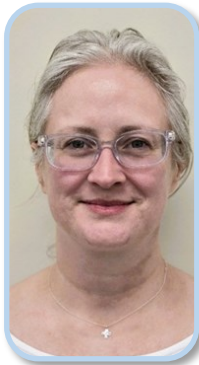

For more information, please contact Kathy Cunningham at (847) 691-5899 or email her at kathy.cunningham@pm.me.

OCIA – 2025-2026

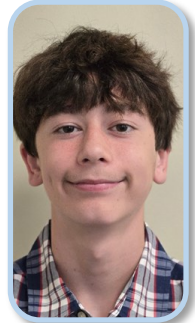

On Sunday, December 14 at the 10:30 AM mass, we will be celebrating the "Rite for Entrance into the Catechumenate and of Welcoming the Candidates". This first rite takes place after a period of inquiry and discernment. Through their answers and with the prayers and support of their sponsors and this community, the journey of these ten individuals into the Paschal Mystery has begun - to die to self and to many, or even all of the things they hold dear, and to embrace a new way of life. Over the next few months please pray for them, support them and be an example of the faith they seek.

CATECHUMENS (unbaptized)

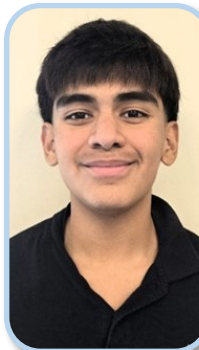

Wendy Bigham — I am a special education teacher at Bethel-Hanberry Elementary in Blythewood. During this year in OCIA, I hope to become a stronger Christian through the Catholic faith and Baptism.

Flynn Berry — I want to join the Catholic Church to build a strong basis in faith and also grow to become a role model in the Catholic faith. Not only this but I want to grow closer to God as well. I love the works of the Catholic Church and how they profess our faith in God. I also would like to build a strong connection between myself and the community. Overall, I want to get closer to God and profess my faith in him by the works of the Catholic Church.

Manuel Alejo Cacaeres-Rosales — I am a Junior at Cardinal Newman High School. I love my cat and music. I am hoping to learn more about the Catholic faith and come into union with the Church.

OCIA CANDIDATES (baptized)

Christopher Berry — My desire to join the Catholic Church is for a connection to a universal faith community and a deeper relationship with God through the Sacraments and Scripture, and the spiritual support offered by the Church's teachings and community. Additionally, I desire a moral structure, spiritual nourishment of the Eucharist, and the traditions and history of the Church.

Christopher and Joelle Adams — We are the Adams family; Chris, Joelle, Brooklyn, Charlotte, Luke, and another one on the way. We feel as a family we have been called to the Church to receive God's full grace through the Sacraments. We are having a great time learning about the Catholic faith and coming to Mass.

OCIA CANDIDATES (baptized)

Marc Bowman — I was born in Montgomery, Alabama into a military family and lived in Europe for most of my formative years. I graduated from high school in Vicenza, Italy. I graduated from Auburn University with my undergraduate and proceed to obtain a master's in engineering from the University of South Carolina. I currently work for the Army as a General Engineer at Fort Jackson.

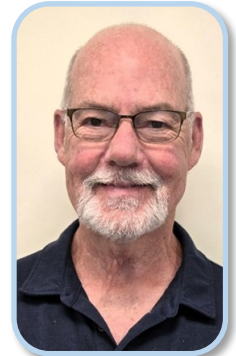

William Hutchinson — Born in Charleston, South Carolina, "Hutch" works in risk management/compliance. He seeks Confirmation in the Catholic faith and reception of the Eucharist.

Justin Drew Enjambre — Born in Brooklyn, New York, Justin works at his family's business. He seeks Confirmation in the Catholic Faith and reception of the Eucharist—the real, true, body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Michael Ludlow — I moved to Columbia from the Chicago suburbs with my wife, Michele. Originally confirmed Episcopalian, I have attended mass with my family for 40 years. I am participating in the OCIA process in order to receive the Eucharist and participate in all the Sacraments of the Catholic Church.

FAITH

2nd Week of Advent

"Now _____ is a confidence in what we _____ for and assurance about what we do not see." Hebrew 11:1

Colour the wreath green,
2 candles purple, and its flame.

How can you show the meaning of faith to others around you –
to your friends, teachers, family?

Colour good actions GREEN and wrong actions RED.

I can say a simple PRAYER each day..
I can laugh at someone.
I can ENCOURAGE others.
I can put others down.
I can offer to HELP someone.
I can complain about others.
I can DONATE to those in need.

Unscramble the words. Write them below.
