ROMAN CATHOLIC
DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 15, 2026

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On the weekend of Aug. 29-30, our diocese will take up a second collection for disaster assistance in our state.

As residents of South Carolina, we are aware of the devastation that some of our neighbors have experienced during natural disasters, especially during hurricane seasons. The funds raised through this collection will be used to ease the burdens in our communities and parishes that experience damage from storms or other natural disasters.

We are consoled by the Gospel account of Christ calming the storm, rebuking the winds and encouraging his disciples. The apostles said to each other, "What sort of man is this, whom even the winds and the sea obey?" (Mt 8:27). Jesus is still among us, dwelling in our tabernacles. Let us remember to call on him when we are in danger.

Thank you for participating in this important local initiative. In addition to monetary donations, please continue to keep in your prayers all those impacted by disasters, whether in South Carolina or internationally.

The character of a person, especially a Christian, is defined by the way one responds to the needs of others. May we be judged always by the way we love one another.

St. Medard, patron against storms, and Our Lady Star of the Sea, pray for us!

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

Volunteer as a Confirmation Teacher

In the Gospel of John, Jesus asked, “What are you looking for?”

Are you feeling and/or hearing the Holy Spirit nudging you to volunteer to teach a Confirmation program? You would not be walking the journey alone...

We need two additional teachers.

Will you open your heart to the Grace of God and give time to help our youth in their Confirmation Journey? Can you guide them to have an encounter with Jesus and inspire them to deepen their personal relationship with him as they journey toward becoming His disciple?

Please consider taking a Leap of Faith. Invest in the future of the church and these children by volunteering to Teach Confirmation.

Please Open up your heart and say “Yes, I am willing.”

Thank you to those who came to the St Patrick’s Catholic Cemetery workday!

Paul Jefferson, Herman King, Marian and Bob Wagner, worked on Saturday, July 18 from 7:00 a.m.—10 a.m. cleaning the fencelines, weeding flower beds, trimming branches, stump grinding several areas and general clean up. It was hot and plenty of water was consumed! But it was a good day keeping the nearest Catholic Cemetery (1200 Mason Rd, Columbia, about 10-15 minutes from Transfiguration and St John Neuman Catholic Churches) clean and pleasant for our loved ones.

Thank you to all who worked and to all the volunteers who have worked to help keep the cemetery clean!

Knights Notes—News and Happenings from Council #13713

Knight of the Month - This month we congratulate Alan Rudell as our July Knight of the Month. Alan has only been a Knight for six months, but during that short time he dove right into being a proactive and productive member of our council. Almost immediately we found him in the kitchen helping prepare, set-up and serve for the Columbiettes State Convention. The next day he was there doing it all over again for Father Jim's 30th Anniversary dinner where he grilled 240 delicious hot dogs for all of us to enjoy. Even bussing tables and washing dishes didn't faze him. Alan is truly a team player and a welcomed new friend to our council. Next time you see him at the piano or watching over his children having fun around the church grounds, give him a big thank you for all he has done. Congrats, Alan!

Family of the Month - A round of applause goes out to the Sweeney Family for their recognition as our Family of the Month. Alaina's time at Transfiguration goes way back as a founding member helping build our Parish Family to what it is today. Early on she stayed busy in the Youth Group and also as a E-Team member, Eucharistic Minister, and lector. Today she is an active member of the Youth Group Core team, and the Columbiettes. This year she co-chaired a successful Ladies Luncheon fundraiser netting $8,000 and continues to work behind the scenes on many projects for the Columbiettes and Care Team. Her three sons are no less busy than she is. Each one willingly works with their grandfather on building ramps, decks and whatever else is needed to complete the project at hand. They have built several ramps, helped to construct stairs, landscaped and at Christmas time even delivered gifts, food and played video games with the fellas at the Men's Home. They helped their mom by moving boxes, gift baskets and serving at the Ladies Luncheon over several months. Their school, sports, and music activities keep them busy when they are not helping out around the Church. Congratulations!

Youth of the Month - This month we recognize an exceptional young lady. Ella is deeply involved in our parish and youth ministry. She faithfully participates in Life Teen, attends youth conferences, and was the youngest member to attend the Steubenville Youth Conference. Her enthusiasm for Youth Ministry is contagious! She helped develop the idea of hosting Edge-specific events, including the "Friendsgiving" gathering, to help create opportunities for our middle school students to build friendships and grow in faith. Ella's kindness, leadership, patience, strong sense of justice, and joyful sense of humor make her an incredible daughter, sister, friend, and role model. She approaches every opportunity to serve with humility and enthusiasm, and she consistently reflects Christ's love through the way she encourages, includes, and cares for those around her. Wherever she goes, she lives out her Catholic faith with sincerity and compassion. She is never hesitant to offer prayers for someone in need and has a genuine desire to care for others. We all wish you the best for your future. Congrats!

Guest Speaker - It was a pleasure to have Fr. Jim McKenna, our newly welcomed Priest in residence, introduce himself and meet some of his congregation. Father gave us a little history lesson on the Salesian order of Priests, why he became a Priest and his family story. Father took questions and told us he looks forward to continuing his ministry at Transfiguration. He recognized and thanked us for all the programs, activities, groups and study programs we as Parishioners plan, organize, and carry out in order to make Transfiguration the Catholic family community that it is today. We welcome Fr. Jim and Fr. John with open arms and look forward to the next chapter in the life of our Church.

SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

calling Transfiguration ladies to become a part of this apostolate.

Mission and Structure

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop—a “holy wasting” (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

For more information please contact Karen Hanson at 803-318-6452.

<https://sevensistersapostolate.org/>

Seven Women

A Seven Sisters group begins when at least seven women respond to a call to the mission of the apostolate. If more than seven women desire to pray in this manner, a core group of seven should be designated while others may substitute or provide additional hours of prayer. The coordinator of a group is known as the anchoress.

One Priest

The initial recipient of a Seven Sisters group should be their parish pastor. After the pastor has a committed group, subsequent groups may be formed for others, such as the parochial vicar, a retired priest, a priest serving in a non-parish assignment, or a bishop.

The group’s intention is directed towards the office of the shepherd more than the individual. In other words, the group prays for the priest until he is reassigned, at which time his successor becomes the recipient of those prayers. This helps us to guard against an undue attachment to a certain priest.

One Hour, One Day

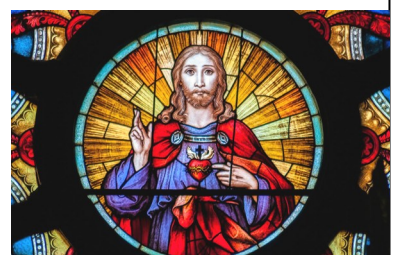

Each member commits to a Holy Hour on a distinct day of the week, thus covering a complete week. The commitment is to that day; the Seven Sister may pray at any time on that day. If she is unable to offer her Holy Hour, she is to secure a substitute, explaining the Apostolate’s mission. The substitute need not be a woman. If unable to arrange a substitute, the member should contact the anchoress for assistance.

Holy Eucharist

The Holy Hour is ideally prayed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament – either in an Adoration Chapel or in front of a Tabernacle – but not restricted to the parish of which the Seven Sister is a member. Thus, one can remain faithful to the commitment when traveling, when a parish does not offer Perpetual Adoration, or when there is limited access to a particular church.

One Year

This generous commitment of one hour per week of prayer is asked for a period of one year, but can remain open-ended in time as each individual discerns her call to continue.
