EASTER SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-8

Welcome to Transfiguration Catholic Church

For those of you who are new to our church or visiting, whether it's your first time coming to Mass or you are registered with our parish, we are so happy that you are here!

We are a warm, and friendly parish with a growing community that embraces our faith, family life, and serving others. We are alive with active ministries including the Knights of Columbus and Columbiettes, and have a strong focus on faith formation for children, youth, and adults. There are fellowship events, retreats, and Bible studies that nourish your spiritual growth and help bring us together so we may help each other on our journey to heaven.

Our church is named after one of the most incredible events in the Lord's life, where Jesus shined with divine light on the mountaintop, revealing his glory to his disciples. We hope you will consider joining our parish family, if you haven't already, and find that Transfiguration is a place where you too can enter into the Lord's presence and experience his glory.

Catechism in a Year Discussion Groups

Last Week's Highlight:

656 Faith in the Resurrection has as its object an event which is historically attested to by the disciples, who really encountered the Risen One. At the same time, this event is mysteriously transcendent insofar as it is the entry of Christ's humanity into the glory of God.

657 The empty tomb and the linen cloths lying there signify in themselves that by God's power Christ's body had escaped the bonds of death and corruption. They prepared the disciples to encounter the Risen Lord.

658 Christ, "the first-born from the dead" (Col 1:18), is the principle of our own resurrection, even now by the justification of our souls (cf. Rom 6:4), and one day by the new life he will impart to our bodies (cf Rom 8:11).

Join your fellow parishioners as we read the Catechism and discuss what we are learning. You can jump in at any time. Here are our upcoming meetings:

9:00 am, Tuesday, Apr 11 – Paragraphs 561-605

4:30 pm, Wednesday, Apr 12 – Paragraphs 659-710

6:30 am, Friday, Apr 14 – Men's Grp: Paragraphs 683-736

DIVINE MERCY

OUR GOD, RICH IN MERCY

Mercy is one of God's most characteristic attitudes toward us. "God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ" (Ephesians 2:4-5). So it was most appropriate when Pope St. John Paul II in 2000 renamed the 2nd Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday when he canonized the Polish nun and mystic St. Faustina Kowalska, who was particularly devoted to Divine Mercy.

God's Mercy in the Bible

In the Old Testament, mercy identifies a complex Hebrew idea describing God's special covenant love (Hebrew, hesed). God's mercy includes loyalty, dependability, trustworthiness and an eagerness to help when situations turn bad. God's desire to be in a covenant relationship with us keeps God alert to our cries for help and eager to deliver us from whatever separates us from God (sin). Mercy is not just the response felt toward those who are suffering, but even more God's fierce covenant attachment to be with us and save us. Like a loving Father or Patron of a family, God is an especially generous benefactor who lavishes gifts (Greek: charis, Latin: gratia) on the covenant people. These gifts are not distributed because of the people's merits, but strictly out of God's freely-given favor or mercy.

Jesus Reveals God's Mercy

In the New Testament, Jesus is the face of the Father's mercy and reveals God as a Father who never gives up until he has forgiven the wrong and overcome rejection with compassion and mercy. Jesus offered a new vision for life in the covenant community, which he called the kingdom of God. He proclaimed God as king: the heavenly patron or benefactor who has mercy on us and generously gives us what we need. So Jesus stressed that our basic response is giving thanks (Greek, eucharist) for God's gifts and the task of sharing them with others. He reminded us that mercy is not only God's action, but as God's children we are called to show mercy because mercy has first been shown to us.

BEING BEARERS OF MERCY

“As we can see in Sacred Scripture, mercy is a key word that indicates God’s action towards us. God does not limit himself merely to affirming his love, but makes it visible and tangible. Love can never be just an abstraction. By its very nature, it indicates something concrete: intentions, attitudes and behaviors that are shown in daily living. God’s mercy is his loving concern for each one of us. God feels responsible; that is, God desires our wellbeing and wants to see us happy, full of joy and peaceful. This is the path which the merciful love of Christians must also travel. As the Father loves, so do we God’s children. Just as God is merciful, so we are called to be merciful to each other. Mercy expresses God’s way of reaching out to the sinner, offering him a new chance to look at himself, convert and believe. God’s forgiveness knows no bounds.

We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity and peace. Our salvation depends on it. Mercy: the word reveals the very mystery of the Most Holy Trinity. Mercy: the ultimate and supreme act by which God comes to meet us. Mercy: the fundamental law that dwells in the heart of every person who looks sincerely into the eyes of his brothers and sisters on the path of life. Mercy: the bridge that connects God and humanity, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness.”

— Pope Francis

Misericordiae Vultus (April 11, 2015)

POPE FRANCIS’S PRAYER TO BECOME BEARERS OF MERCY

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father,
and have told us that whoever sees you sees God.

Show us your face and we will be saved.

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power
above all by forgiveness and mercy:
let us be your visible face in the world.

Send your Spirit and consecrate
every one of us with its anointing,
so we, with renewed enthusiasm,
may bring good news to the poor,
proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind. Amen.

—Pope Francis

St. Faustina Prayer

(Polish born Helena Kowalska (1905–1938), was the third of ten children. When almost twenty, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, became Sr. Maria Faustina and devoted her life to the message of God’s mercy. She traced her spiritual experiences with Christ in her diary, Divine Mercy in My Soul. She was canonized in 2000.)

I want to be completely transformed into your mercy
and to be your living reflection, O Lord.
Help me, that my eyes may be merciful,
so I may never suspect
or judge from appearances,
but look for what is beautiful
in my neighbors’ souls
and come to their rescue.
Help me, that my ears may be merciful,
so I may heed my neighbors’ needs
and not be indifferent to their pains.
Help me, that my tongue may be merciful, so I should never
speak negatively of my neighbor,
but have a word
of comfort and forgiveness.
Help me, that my hands may be merciful
and filled with good deeds,
so I may do only good to my neighbors
by doing the difficult tasks.
Help me, that my heart may be merciful
so I may feel all the sufferings of my neighbor.
Jesus, I trust in you! Amen.

Faustina’s Mission

St. Faustina’s life-long dedication to God’s mercy was the direct result of her mystic encounter with Jesus, who gave her this mission. “Today I am sending you with my mercy to the people of the whole world. Speak to the world about my mercy. Let all mankind recognize my unfathomable mercy. Let them have recourse to the fount of my mercy. Let them profit from the blood and water which gushed forth for them. Before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the doors of my mercy. One who refuses to pass through the doors of my mercy must pass through the doors of my justice. Mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to my mercy.”

FORGIVEN

THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF CONFESSION

The Four-Part Series on the Eucharist entitled “Presence” was so well received by the parish that we’ve decided to offer a follow-on program for the Sacrament of Reconciliation entitled “Forgiven.” The program will follow the same video/discussion pattern as the previous sessions; however, we will divide the final session into two separate meetings because of its length. The following are the dates to begin planning your calendars:

Episode 1 – Where are You? – Have you ever felt lost and alone, isolated in guilt? Like the Prodigal Son among the pigs, we know that we have sinned. But God won't leave us there—he searches for us and runs to welcome us home in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Tuesday – April 11th immediately after 6 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Saturday April 15th immediately after 4 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Sunday April 16th at 9:15 AM (between the 8 and 10:30 AM Masses—Large Classroom—PLC)

Episode 2 – An Encounter with Mercy – We are not defined by our mistakes. In Confession, Jesus invites us to encounter his mercy and be healed by his love. When he tells us "Go and sin no more," he also gives us the grace to do so.

Tuesday – April 18th immediately after 6 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Saturday April 22nd immediately after 4 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Sunday April 23rd at 9:15 AM (between the 8 and 10:30 AM Masses—Conference Rm.—PLC)

Episode 3 – Embraced in Mercy: The Rite Explained – Whether you go to Confession regularly or a decade ago, this session guides you step-by-step through the deeper meaning of every aspect of the Rite—what it is, why we do it, and how it impacts your life.

Tuesday – April 25th immediately after 6 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Saturday April 29th immediately after 4 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Sunday April 30th at 9:15 AM (between the 8 and 10:30 AM Masses—Conference Rm.—PLC)

Episode 4 – Biblical Foundations | Forgiven | Part 1 – The Sacrament of Reconciliation is founded on the powerful revelation of God's love and mercy for his people throughout Scripture. God's delegation of his authority to the priest in Confession is a continuation of the way God uses both angels and men in Scripture as his mediators.

Tuesday – May 2nd immediately after 6 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Saturday May 8th immediately after 4 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Sunday May 9th at 9:15 AM (between the 8 and 10:30 AM Masses—Conference Rm.—PLC)

Episode 5 – Biblical Foundations | Forgiven | Part 2 – The Sacrament of Reconciliation is founded on the powerful revelation of God's love and mercy for his people throughout Scripture. God's delegation of his authority to the priest in Confession is a continuation of the way God uses both angels and men in Scripture as his mediators.

Tuesday – May 9th immediately after 6 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Saturday May 13th immediately after 4 PM Mass (Large Classroom—PLC)

Sunday May 14th at 9:15 AM (between the 8 and 10:30 AM Masses—Conference Rm.—PLC)
