MISCELLANEOUS:

David VanCise expressed his concerns about vicious dogs in the City. Mr. VanCise asked if the City could enact a law requiring these dogs to be muzzled when in public. Mayor Hogan said that the court system has to determine if a dog is vicious. The City will monitor this situation and if necessary, take it to the Common Council.

Shelly Stevens stated that the Holiday Parade will be on December 4 this year. They are moving it away from Black Friday in hopes of getting bands to take part. There will also be a horse and wagon downtown on December 5.

A request for a handicapped parking space on Genesee St., in front of the First Baptist Church was discussed. Chief Murray will look into the law and see if an ordinance will be necessary. Mayor Hogan asked that if an ordinance is necessary, the board move to approve such resolution now. Motion to approve by Hogan and seconded by Sengstock. Ayes all.

Bud Burdett reported that the tenants of 4 Sheldon Court have vacated the property. Mayor Hogan commended Burdett on his work on resolving this problem.
