Crater Lake, The Redwoods & the Southern Oregon Coast

7 Days / 6 Nights August 9-15, 2027

Discover the Pacific Northwest at its finest — the deep blue of Crater Lake, ancient redwoods, and the wild southern Oregon coast. Every detail thoughtfully handled, leaving you free to savor unforgettable memories with newfound friends.

Crater Lake, Redwoods & the Southern Coast

Some landscapes are so extraordinary that seeing them in person changes the way you remember a place forever. This is a journey through the Pacific Northwest at its most spectacular — a week of towering forests, dramatic coastline, and one of the most breathtaking sights in all of North America, thoughtfully arranged so that all you need to do is relax and take it in.

Our adventure begins in the high country, where the deep and impossibly blue waters of Crater Lake await. You will explore the rim on a narrated trolley tour, letting someone else do the driving while you simply enjoy the view, and spend a night at the historic lodge perched on the caldera's edge. From there we follow the wild Rogue River, pausing at a dramatic gorge before boarding a jet boat for a memorable dinner cruise between forested banks.

The journey then leads us among the redwoods, the tallest trees on earth, where a gentle float on the crystal-clear Smith River offers a rare view of the giants from below. We continue along the Samuel H. Boardman Scenic Corridor, one of the most beautiful stretches of coastline anywhere, its sea stacks and hidden coves giving way to two unhurried nights in the charming seaside town of Bandon, with its welcoming Old Town, famous Face Rock, and historic lighthouse.

Throughout, every detail is handled for you. From upscale accommodations and exceptional regional dining to a knowledgeable and caring tour director, this is travel the way it was meant to be — seamless, comfortable, and shared with a friendly group of fellow travelers who so often become friends.

Come discover the Northwest we are proud to call home, and return with unforgettable memories and shared stories that last a lifetime.
