1

DAY 1 - DOWN THE HOOD CANAL TO PORT TOWNSEND (L, D)

North into Washington and along the forested western shore of the Hood Canal to a family oyster farm for lunch beside the tideflats. Check in to our historic downtown hotel for all four nights, a first look at the Jefferson Museum of Art & History, and our Welcome Dinner in an 1889 building.

DAY 2 - WORKING WATERFRONT & VICTORIAN TOWN (B, L, D)

The Northwest Maritime Center and the Point Hudson boatyards, where shipwrights still build wooden boats by hand. After lunch on the waterfront, a guided tour of the brick downtown and the grand Victorian homes on the bluff, then dinner together.

DAY 3 - WHALES & FRIDAY HARBOR (B, D)

A full day on the Salish Sea, cruising across the Strait of Juan de Fuca watching for orcas, humpbacks, porpoises and seals. Lunch on your own and time to explore Friday Harbor on San Juan Island, then dinner together back in Port Townsend.

DAY 4 - BOATBUILDERS & THE CHIMACUM VALLEY (B, L, D)

The Northwest School of Wooden Boatbuilding in Port Hadlock, then lunch and a guided cider and fruit wine tasting at an organic farm in the Chimacum Valley, with an optional visit to Fort Flagler. Our Farewell Dinner in Port Townsend.

DAY 5 - WHIDBEY ISLAND & HOMEWARD (B, L)

The ferry across Admiralty Inlet to Fort Casey and the Admiralty Head Lighthouse, a final lunch in historic Coupeville on Penn Cove, and home with drop-offs in Tualatin, Woodburn, Salem, and Albany by evening.
