

WE'RE YOUR LAWN EXPERTS

FOR NEW SOD, KEEP THE ENTIRE TOP MAT MOIST AT ALL TIMES UNTIL ROOTS HAVE PENETRATED SOIL, THEN WATER AS NEEDED.

Kentucky Info.	JAN	FEB	MARCH	APRIL	MAY	JUNE	JULY	AUG	SEPT	OCT	NOV	DEC
Soil Conditions	LIME Ground Limestone Granular Lime		Bluegrass can be grown on any kind of soil, if not too sandy. The only exception is soil that is too acid. Liming should be done every year.						LIME Ground Limestone Granular Lime
Seeding						1. Sow Seed on fresh raked ground 2. Rake in lightly 3. Do not attempt to cover all seed		Bluegrass, fine fescue, Tall fescue
Fertilization		1 st application of regular fertilizer 10-10-10 or 12-12-12		2 nd application of regular fertilizer 10-10-10 or 12-12-12				3 rd application of regular fertilizer 10-10-10 or 12-12-12
Pre-Emergent Crabgrass Controls		Combination Crabgrass Control with or without fertilizer			Combination Crabgrass Control
Broadleaf Weed Control			Chickweed - Henbit Use Liquid Chickweed Killer			Dandelions & Broadleaf Weeds Liquid Weedkillers
Lawn Diseases			Mildew leafspot Melting Out						Mildew leafspot
Insect Control					White-Grub Control	Sod - Webworm Control Sprays - apply at two week intervals Dry Materials - apply at 1 month intervals
Mowing Bluegrass, Tall Fescue, Rye Grass			Mow 3.5" high Best mowing practices, remove only 1/2 - 3/4 in per mowing
Watering			Water 1" per week as weather dictates Water before soil becomes dry

LAWN RENOVATION

1 Mow Lawn Short (1/2")	2 Power Rake	3 Clean off debris	4 Seed	5 Fertilize	6 Cover seed with straw - maintain mulch cover on bare ground	7 Water regularly 5 - 7 days
--------------------------------------	------------------------	------------------------------	------------------	-----------------------	---	---