General Price List

These prices are effective as of July 13, 2026, and are subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any pre-need agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the decedent.

Professional Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director, Staff and Overhead 3995

This, a non-declinable fee, was established to include: sheltering of remains, preparing, obtaining and filing necessary notices, autorizations, permits and coordinating final disposition arrangements. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Embalming 995

This service includes basic preparation, disinfecting, dressing and casketing. Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.California Health and Safety Code Section 1223C requires refrigeration of an unembalmed body if held over twenty-four (24) hours.
