David Goebel is organizing teams (or families) of two or more to volunteer to rings bells for two hours to help fill the Salvation Army kettle at Ace Hardware. Shifts are Fridays or Saturdays, starting at 10am, noon, 2pm or 4pm the first weekend of December. Bundle up and help support their mission to help the poor and needy in our area! Text or call (217) 693-9062 to sign up! What a great way to show stewardship, discipleship, and invite someone to worship with us!

Pick up your 2027 calendar in the vestibule. Thank you to the regional funeral homes for offering these free calendars to our church.

Classes resume 11/8. Interested in becoming Catholic? The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process by which adults enter into the fullness of faith. Classes meet most Sundays after the 10am Mass in the classroom off the Parish Hall. It's not too late to join! For more information, contact Dr. Katherine Leo (katherine.m.leo@gmail.com).

Welcome to Katherine Yantis who called and wished to be on St. Isidore parish list. Glad you are with us!

A word from Fr. Rafal…

The Gospel this Sunday challenges us. In our ordinary everyday lives, we all know how to prepare and get ready. We get ready if we have an appointment with the doctor. We get ready for school or for work. If we are going out to somewhere special, we spend extra time getting ready and being prepared. The challenge and invitation of waiting and being prepared for Jesus's coming is that I am trying my very best to live my daily life as a follower of Jesus. This will be seen in how I speak, how I act and in how I treat others. Waiting then, is not about some unknown future. Being a Christian and waiting for Jesus is about how I live my daily life, right here and right now.

Let's prepare for upcoming Advent to make sure we will find time for a confession. We will have a sacrament of reconciliation celebration on December 15th at 6:30 pm. That will be a great opportunity to prepare our hearts for Christmas. I'm going to invite other priests from the deanery, so you will have option to choose from. Let's be present for that. We can work out about our dinner time and come to the church for that.

Last thing I want to do is simple, just say thank you for being generous with our time. We have a wonderful group of people cleaning the church every week. That's so awesome. The church looks cleaner and more beautiful. I would like to say thank you to Mary Ann Beck for her hard work for so many years. We can work together as a parish to make this place better for everyone. May God bless your good hearts.

God Bless you.

Father Rafal
