Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Isaiah 25:6-10a | Philippians 4:12-14,19-20 | Matthew 21:1-14 or 22:1-10

Who Are You Wearing? Miguel Dulick

The closer Jesus gets to his death, the more targeted are his parables, specifically to the “chief priests and elders.” He has no patience with their hypocrisy.

The wedding feast has a long history in the prophets and the psalms, always a glorious celebration of love and delight—God marrying the chosen people. But today’s gospel, Jesus speaks of the feast as a massacre. When the guests refuse to attend his son’s wedding, and they even kill the messengers sent to invite them, the enraged king amasses his troops to destroy “those murderers” and burn their city to the ground. So, the chosen people are un-chosen. Then, the king tries again, and this time sending the servants to “whomever [they] find.” And then comes a beautiful moment” the servants invite the “bad (literally, “evil”) and good alike,” and they fill up the hall! This echoes Jesus’ own promise of the cross: “When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself” (John 12:32)

There is one more twist to the story that keeps Jesus in his own uncompromising space. When the king spots a guest without a “wedding garment,” he binds him hand and foot and throws him out into the darkness. Pretty scary—but do stay with Jesus. Accept the invitation to the banquet. And let Jesus dress you in his own garment of grace.

Do I show up to the banquet (the Eucharist) prepared to listen, pray, and be fed?

The Rosary is the most beautiful and the richest in graces of all prayers; It is the prayer that touches most the Heart of the Mother of God . . . and if you wish peace to reign in your homes, Recite the family Rosary."

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Stewardship Blessing

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month — be generous with your gifts of time and prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

Income - October 4, 2026

Mahalo for your generosity!

Next week's second collection
 World Mission Sunday

Together, with faith and aloha, let us Share God's Gifts — ensuring that every person in our churches and schools experiences the love and care of our Catholic community today and in the future ahead.

We have an ongoing repairs and yard maintenance list and need your help to complete these tasks. The list and information are located on the back bulletin board. Many hands make light work!

If there are any questions, please contact Lot Kaluau. Next scheduled workday is Saturday, November 14th.
