PROCLAIMERS OF THE WORD

COMMUNION TO HOMEBOUND

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue our Lenten journey, today's readings remind us of the importance of cleansing our hearts and minds of any impurity and self-centeredness, and instead, filling ourselves with the love and grace of God.

The first reading teaches us that the Ten Commandments are not limitations on our freedom, but rather a guide for living a life of love and respect for God and our neighbors.

The Responsorial Psalm highlights the life-giving attributes of the Mosaic Law, and the second reading reminds us to appreciate the "foolishness" of Christ's sacrifice and to obey his commandment of love.

In the Gospel, Jesus cleanses the Temple of its merchants and moneychangers, a powerful reminder that our relationship with God must be one of mutual love and respect, not a calculated exchange of sacrifices and good deeds. We are the temples of the Holy Spirit, and we must strive to keep our hearts and lives pure and holy.

As we prepare for Holy Week, let us remember to love our parish Church as our "Heavenly Father's house" and to make it a holier place through our reverent worship and active participation in the liturgy, our care for it, and our financial support. May we be cleansed by the regular Sacrament of Reconciliation, repentance and strive to live a life of obedience to God's commandments.

May God cleanse our hearts and minds and help us to live a life of obedience to His commandments. May our parish Church be a holy and vibrant place of worship, and may we be filled with God's love and grace.

MARCH 3, 2024 THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT A message from our pastor Fr. Robert Ni Ni, MF

May God bless you and your loved ones.

AS A PARISH WE OBSERVE LENT

In practice, Lent calls us to the discipline of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, providing us with opportunities for conversion: our ongoing personal transformation/ conversion. In this way, we answer to the ceaseless claim of our baptism, shaping our lives in keeping with the faithful heart we know and celebrate in Jesus. This, then, is the work of Lent...and the journey begins with ashes: dying that we may rise with Christ as Easter's promise!

LENTEN REGULATIONS and DIOCESAN INSTRUCTIONS for the OSERVATION OF LENT:

FASTING: In the dioceses in the United States, Catholics aged 18 through 59 are bound to fast on both ASH Wednesday (February 14 and GOOD FRIDAY (March 29). To fast means to consume one full meal a day at most, although taking of other, smaller quantities of food at the other customary mealtimes is permitted. Food and drink between meals (except water and medicine) is not permitted on fast days.

ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT: Catholics aged 14 and up are to abstain from meat on ASH Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday. To abstain means refraining from eating beef, veal, pork, or poultry at least, although eggs and milk products are acceptable. The consumption of fish and shellfish is permitted, though the penitential character of the abstinence should be kept in mind.

EASTER DUTY: All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year. This precept is to be fulfilled during the Easter Season unless it is fulfilled, for a just cause, at some other time during the year. This period is extended to include all the weeks of Lent and the Easter Season up to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity Sunday (May 26).

LENTEN PRACTICES: The faithful are encouraged during Lent to attend daily Mass, receive Holy Communion, participate in penance services (March 12th 6pm), and receive sacramental absolution; to take part in public and private exercises of piety Lenten Mission (March 18th 6:00-7:30pm), give generously to works of religion and charity, perform acts of kindness toward the sick, aged, and the poor; to practice voluntary selfdenial, especially regarding food, drink, and worldly amusements; and to pray more fervently, particularly for the intentions of the Holy Fa
