PROCLAIMERS OF THE WORD
COMMUNION TO HOMEBOUND

APRIL 7, 2024
SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY
A message from our pastor
Fr. Robert Ni Ni, MF

.Dear Parishioners,

Today, on this Second Easter Sunday, we come together to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, a day of extraordinary grace and forgiveness. As we reflect on the profound significance of this feast, let us open our hearts to receive the gift of total forgiveness that the Catholic Church offers through a plenary indulgence. This day, marking the Octave Day of Easter, serves as a time of spiritual renewal and profound grace.

Just as the Day of Atonement held immense importance in the Old Testament, Divine Mercy Sunday stands as a modern-day opportunity for us to prepare for judgment and seek reconciliation with God. Through the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confession, we are granted access to the Fount of Divine Mercy, as instructed by Jesus Himself to His Church. The Divine Mercy Image serves as a powerful reminder of the essence of these sacraments, emphasizing the cleansing of sins and the promise of eternal life through Jesus' sacrifice. Let us trust in His boundless mercy, approach Him with humility and faith, and seize this incredible opportunity to be reconciled with our Savior.

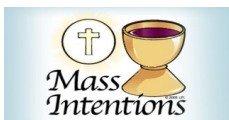

Today, let us respond to the call to approach the Sacrament of Confession with openness and sincerity. Jesus awaits us there, ready to offer His mercy and absolution, inviting us to come before Him with hearts free from sin and open to His grace. As we prepare to receive Holy Communion, let us strive to approach this sacred moment with purity and reverence, seeking to partake in this miraculous gift with unwavering faith.

If you have not yet made your yearly Confession in anticipation of Easter Communion, do not let this opportunity slip away, today at 2 PM in the Queen of Angel church, the service for confession and Mass will be available. Furthermore, the Church grants approximately 20 days for Confession, before or after Divine Mercy Sunday, to receive the special plenary indulgence being offered. Remember, if you find yourself in a state of serious sin, it is vital to seek the Sacrament of Confession before partaking in Holy Communion.

May the grace of Divine Mercy Sunday fill our hearts with joy, peace, and hope. Let us embrace this day with gratitude and humility, knowing that we are cherished beyond measure by our compassionate and merciful God. Rejoice and be glad, for today is truly a day of Divine Mercy and grace.

May the blessings of this special day accompany you throughout the week.

Stewards of Gifts

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own...” - ACTS 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money – these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely “Stewards” of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.
