

THE JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Deuteronomy 30:10-14 / Colossians 1:15-20 / Luke 10:25-37

[Jesus said,] "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

LUKE 10:36-37

The Passion of Compassion

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

We tend to hear the parable of the Good Samaritan and place ourselves in the role of the Samaritan, thereby expected to be compassionate, as was the Samaritan. Those who heard Jesus tell the parable, however, would never have identified with the Samaritan. To them, the Samaritans were religious heretics who worshipped not in Jerusalem but at their own temple. Thus, the people of Jesus' day would have seen themselves as the victim, the one on the side of the road. Who, then, would be the Samaritan, the surprising caregiver, the compassionate one? Because parables are about God and how God works, it would be God who is and has always been the one who heals and feeds and nurtures us back to life. The parable then surprises the hearer of Jesus' day—God as a compassionate Samaritan!

It is God's compassion that we bring to those seeking forgiveness as well as to those who, for whatever reason, have not yet reached the point of asking for forgiveness. It is God's compassion that we bring to the unborn, the immigrant, the homeless, the sick in need of healing, the jobless who have lost hope. It is God's compassion that a nation brings to anyone who has lost his or her way, as it has been noted that the greatness of a nation is in how that nation deals with and cares for the weakest among them. ●

Reflect

When have I needed a compassionate response?
When could I have been more compassionate?

JUBILEE YEAR 2025 - PILGRIMS OF HOPE

What is a Jubilee?

- It is a name given to a particular year.
- It is rooted in Jewish Tradition, celebrated every 50th year.
- The word “jubilee” come from “yobel,” the rams’ horn which is used as a trumpet in religious celebrations; it signals and announces the start of the jubilee.
- Intention: to re-establish a proper relationship; God humanity-and-creation.
- The Jubilee in 1300 was the first recorded in history, convoked by Pope Boniface VII.
- Two Types of Jubilee: Ordinary, every 25 years, and Extraordinary, invoked due to particular event or theme.

YEAR OF HOPE

- Hope is not something that we create. It is a gift (cf. Mt 12:21)
- Hope is Jesus (cf. Tim 1:1; Tim 2:13)
- It is built upon in our ongoing relationship with Jesus (Col 3:1)
- It is always in relation to God and his promise; without God and his promise hope will not stand. (cf. 2 Cor. 4:16 18)
- It is nourished in prayer. (cf. CCC 1820)
- It grows in those who have ac child-like disposition who humbly trust God, always looking forward for his divine justice and the fullness of peace (cf Mt: 18: 2-5)

The Jubilee Cross has been traveling around the state since January 2025. It will arrive on Maui on July 21 (Monday). Join us at Christ the King Church for an Opening Mass.

Stewards Love

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All because Stewardship is lived without expecting anything in return.
