Pastor's Notes:

Thank you to Doris Blume and Cindy Dugger for getting the individual giving statements for 2023 out last week. A job that takes more work than you may know. If yours is not picked up this weekend, it will be mailed to you. God bless!

I was told by about three people that I had supposedly texted them asking for Apple gift cards. Fr. Greg had also in the past supposedly sent out such a text. SCAM!!! Your first clue was that I allegedly texted. It ain't happening! Thanks to all who reported it. I have been told that I was dragged kicking and screaming into the technology of the twentieth century and the twenty-first is mostly beyond my pay grade. God bless!

Thanks to Les and Deanna Schmidt for donating two new (less-frustrating-to-set-up) Christmas trees for the sanctuary next Christmas. One of the old ones is already gone and the second will probably be taken to the Bargain Bazaar in McCook.

Thanks to all who helped with the Jim Helm funeral on Friday and with the Knights of Columbus bull fry a couple of weeks ago. We have many good stewards in our parish!

Friday was also the day that Pope St. John Paul II designated as a special day of recognition to the men and women who lead consecrated lives as sisters, brothers, or religious priests and who take the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, usually belonging to a religious order or congregation. (I myself am a "plain label" diocesan priest). Our parish has had a number of people who have given themselves to the Lord in the religious life during our history. Thank you to them all!

When putting away the Christmas decorations (we are not yet completely done as of this writing), Rita McConville supplied some interesting facts about our nativity set. It was given as early as 1978 in memory of Thomas and Elizabeth "Lillian" Colling McConville and was definitely in use by 1981 (according to some dated photos). It originally cost about $500, but it is certainly worth much more today. Thanks to all who honor our Infant Lord!
