Pastor's Notes:

Today is sometimes called "Little Christmas," although it actually ranks as high as Christmas Day in the liturgical calendar. It is the day on which the Magi traditionally arrived in Bethlehem (the "twelfth day" of Christmas), so it properly belongs on January 6, but, for the sake of allowing more people to take part, it has been moved to the nearest Sunday. Among Eastern Christians, it is the day when the Lord was baptized by His cousin John the Baptist, beginning His public life and ministry. In Greek tradition, the bishop or priest throws a crucifix in the water of the sea, and the young people vie to retrieve it. This is also the day when we commemorate the first public miracle of the Lord, the changing of water into wine at the wedding feast of Cana. All three of these themes (the Magi, the Baptism, and Cana) all show the coming of the Lord in great majesty, in contrast to the humble coming at Bethlehem on Christmas Day. Both Epiphany and Christmas, then, complement each other and help us to reflect on how "the Word became Flesh and made His dwelling among us." This is what is referred to as the mystery of the Incarnation (the "enfleshment" of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity), and we can again rejoice in the great coming of our God to us sinners in the world that God created and we drove askew. Next Sunday we focus on the Baptism of the Lord and this will be the last day of official Christmastide—although the themes will continue to show up in the readings until Lent begins. Jesus, You came once for sinners; please come again in majesty at the end of time!

Today is also the day when the "Epiphany Proclamation" is made with the announcement of the dates of the "movable feasts" for the coming year (primarily, Easter Sunday and the feasts that depend on that particular date, which is April 5 this year. There are also prayer sheets that you may use with your family in your home today or soon, recalling the visit of the Magi and asking Christ to bless your home, along with blessed chalk and blessed Epiphany water. God bless YOU!

Special thanks to all who have helped in our celebration of the coming of the Lord—to Rita McConvile and Barb Tines for decorating (and re-decorating with the wreaths outside after the windstorm), to our four dedicated organists and the boys and girls and men and women that helped lead our singing, to the Knights of Columbus for setting up (and, eventually, taking down) the crib—quite an operation, although it goes rather smoothly, and to all readers, acolytes, servers, ushers and all!
