Pastor's Notes:

I want to take this opportunity to thank Dale Stritt for moving snow (especially during the severe cold snap), to Doris Blume for filling in the office (Cindy Dugger is now working more than fulltime at St. Patrick's in McCook), to Bernie Walz for mailing statements, to Skip Marsh for fixing the closing mechanism on the door in the sacristy, to the Lord family for supplying a new "trip-less" rug going into the sacristy from the sanctuary, to Rita (and Ed!) McConville and Barb (and Chuck!) Tines for taking care of the poinsettias and other seasonal decorations, to Kim McConville (and Mark!) for taking care of the altar linens, to Roger Buschkoetter and many helpers for putting tables and chairs up or down and moving partitions in the hall to meet the needs of CCD, funerals, and other activities, to Millie Cuellar for sewing as needed, to Rick McConville for arranging the fixing of the upstairs bedroom in the rectory with water damage from a few years ago, to Roger Buschkoetter, Les Schmidt, and Dale Stritt, for putting the Christmas stable to rest for another year (a big job!), to Darcie Keenportz for being the contact for the prayer chain, to Jason and Stephanie Neseth for doing the training to be the coordinating couple for our Witness to Love marriage preparation process (you will hear more later). Wherever I look, I see good stewards of the things that God has entrusted to us to be used for our own needs, the needs of our families and loved ones, and the needs of our "brothers and sisters" in Christ, as well as the needs of all. God bless you all!

In addition to the Super Bowl this weekend (and thanks, by the way, to the Altar Society and others who helped with the SOUPer Bowl here last weekend), it is also World Marriage Day. This day is chosen by the Marriage Encounter movement because it is close to St. Valentine's Day (Saturday, February 14), which is not always easy to accommodate, as it often shares the day with one of the Sundays of Lent, and also since February 14 is now celebrated on the liturgical calendar as the memorial of Saints Cyril and Methodius, the apostles to the Slavic peoples. Be that as it may, we are still happy to recognize those committed to living out the Sacrament of Matrimony, and we thank you for witnessing to the rest of us (single, divorced, widowed, those in non-canonical unions, etc.) to the love that Jesus Christ has for His holy people, the Church (as the New Testament teaches—see Eph. 5:25, 32, 33, for example). And, I should point out, the Knights of Columbus and others are putting on the St. Valentine dinner next Sunday evening. Good food, good company, even if you are single or not coming with a spouse.

First confession is scheduled this Wednesday for our second-grade students during CCD time. Welcome to the sacrament of forgiveness!
