Pastor’s Notes:

We are most happy to welcome the men and women of Totus Tuus, who are here to teach and work with our young people this week (and also some from McCook and Curtis, since they were not able to schedule a team this summer). We welcome you to Indianola! Daily Mass Monday through Friday will be at 11:30 A.M. to accommodate the team and the students, barring any funerals, so there will be no 7:30 A.M. Mass (or 6:30 P.M. on Wednesday). Sorry for the inconvenience!

Happy Fathers’ Day to all fathers and grandfathers who are living, and with prayers for all those who are deceased. Fathers play a very significant role in the lives of their sons and daughters. There is a special blessing for you before the final blessing at Mass this weekend. God bless you always!

Today is the longest day of the year and the official beginning of summer (the weather people use June 1 as the beginning). We are delighted to have the long days and the short nights. May God give us good weather during the “good old summer time.” As the days now start to get shorter, we remember the saying of Jesus’s cousin, John the Baptist who said that I (that is, John the Baptist) must decrease (we celebrate his birthday on June 24) and He (that is, Jesus) must increase (and we celebrate the birthday of Jesus, as you know, on December 25, when the short days start to get longer).

Next Sunday we will have the centennial committee meeting after Mass and the parish council meeting at 6 P.M. in the rectory. We are almost at the halfway point for the year. I am happy to report that the Bishop is planning to be present for the Mass that Sunday morning (October 17, 2027) and a celebratory meal afterward as we mark 100 years in our beautiful church. There will be a limited number of tickets available to the meal (due to the size of the hall), but current parishioners and invited guests (the Dolan family from out west?) will have first shot. The Mass that morning will be at 11 A.M. instead of 9 A.M., but this is just so that you can look forward to what should be at least as great of a get-together as Old Settlers’ weekend.

Next weekend is the official Peter’s Pence collection for the Holy Father, near the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul (June 29). Amen!
