Pastor's Notes:

Alleluia! He is risen as He said! Today is the day that defines Christianity—it is the day on which we proclaim to all the world the heart of our beliefs—the proof that the Sacrifice of Jesus was real and that He truly could offer it on our behalf to the Father. Jesus is not just a nice man—He is the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, and He has conquered sin and death for us. If we do not believe in the Resurrection, our faith and hope are meaningless. He is alive and we can live forever!

We are planning to have our two second-grade students make their First Holy Communion at Mass this coming Saturday evening. You are more than welcome to be there to help them to celebrate this special day.

Yours truly is planning to be out of town after Mass on Sunday until sometime Tuesday evening, so there will be no Mass here on Monday or Tuesday. I have a doctor's appointment in Omaha on Tuesday.

Parish council is set to meet next Sunday (April 27).

Special thanks to an anonymous (by request) donor for the extra children's Station booklets. Thanks to Kim McConville for taking over the altar linen job from faithful Claudia Liess. Thanks to Lloyd Ogorzolka for servicing the snowblowers and mowers, and fixing the air-conditioning panel on the top of the parish hall, and for cleaning outside drains on the church and rectory. Thanks to Mike and Millie Cuellar and Zach Hueftle for keeping the cemetery and grounds looking good. Thanks to all who had their feet washed on Holy Thursday, and all who helped in any way to make the Paschal Feast special for everyone else—acolytes, lectors, readers, decorators, ushers, musicians, and those who added their presence to any of the liturgies or special prayer services during the week.

We are in the process of getting the outside painting of the church lined up and hope to have it done soon—(by the time you read this?). There is a lot to keeping our beautiful and historic buildings in good repair—they are almost 100 years old (except the hall!).

Cindy Larsen Dugger from McCook has been volunteering her time to write checks and help in the administration of our parish. We will also be adding Deb Douglas from McCook for the same things—they are working at St. Patrick's in McCook as well, so we are lucky to have their talents in our service. Thanks to all of our good stewards!

This coming week is called "Bright Week" in the eastern Christian tradition. We also call it "Easter Week" and it is one big celebration.
