KNOWLEDGE

The Protestant Reformation happened across Europe in the sixteenth century
Many people in England were either Protestant or Catholic Christians at that time
The Church of England was founded during this time by King Henry VIII
Anne Askew was a Protestant Christian
Many Protestant Christians questioned the teachings and traditions of the Catholic Church
Some Protestant Christians were tortured and executed at this time for questioning Catholic teachings, including Anne Askew
It was not easy being female in Tudor society; many women experienced sexism

What the unit covers...

In this unit, pupils explore in greater depth key Christians teachings and texts relating to what it means to be human. They apply this to the lived example of Anne Askew, a 17th century Protestant Christian who was eventually executed for her beliefs. Using questions and methods drawn from theology, history and philosophy, pupils begin to consider continuity and change in Christian worldviews.

Evidence of pupil knowledge can be recorded in a number of ways, including through written work, oracy and reflective activities.
