Newsletter 343, 24th October 2025

Dear Parents and Friends,

The children have achieved so much in their first half term of the academic year and are now ready for a rest. I hope you all have a happy and safe week and return full of energy on Monday 3rd November. Lessons do start at 8.45am, so please do your best to ensure that your child arrives with enough time to be sitting down in class then. Next half term will be an extra exciting one in the run up to Christmas.

Partnership News

Weekly Worship Focus

Our worship this week has been revisiting Mark chapter 10, verses 17-22. This week we discussed the difference between not doing something bad and actively doing something good. We thought about the opportunities we have in school to make a positive difference.

We invite parents of children who receive certificates to join us for worship on a Friday in school. However, you can still join us virtually if it is easier for you. Monday – Thursday we have whole school worship at 2.45pm. On a Friday it is 1.05pm at All Saints and 2.30pm at St Martin. You are welcome to join us at any of these sessions.

Vacancy

At St Martin we are advertising for a cleaner. The job is two hours a day (before or after school), Monday-Friday. To see the advert please look at our website: <https://villagesaintspartnership.demat.org.uk/staff-vacancies>

The Big Bean Boost is launching after half term.

Lots of ideas to engage children with vegetables can be found here: <https://simplyveg.vegpower.org.uk/>

There are arts and crafts, science, puzzles, cooking, safety tips – so have a look during half term.

Half Termly Winners

DOJOs: Congratulations Oxburgh and Owl you have achieved the most dojo points this half term so you will get an extra playtime on Tuesday 4th November.

Attendance: Congratulations Explorers you have had the best attendance this half term so you can come to school in your own clothes on Tuesday 4th November. Well done!

Unfortunately no class at All Saints made it to 96% for the half term. Let's try really hard to enjoy as much school as possible next half term

Foodbank Visit

Thank you again for your generous harvest gifts, some members of the school council took them to the foodbank in Downham.

The children learnt about what happens in a food bank and the processes behind sorting and weighing the food into different categories. They had the opportunity to pack a food parcel for a family of four and to find the food items. The children learnt about the process of donation and the impact it can have on other people's lives. They also had a tour of the building, seeing the citizen's advice rooms, the church, Sunday school, kitchen and sport's hall. The foodbank covers all of the local area.
