Newsletter 372, 3rd July 2026

Dear Parents and Friends,

Tonight we have the Disco at All Saints and Shouldhamberry at St Martin. It would seem to be a suitable time to publicly thank our 'Friends' for all that they do to support the school and enhance the children's time with us. Thank you too, to everyone of you that supports these events. If anyone can give a gift of time to the Friends next year I know they would appreciate it, as all too often the same small group of people are working hard to deliver all the events. Thank you all!

Weekly Worship Focus

Worship this week has been based on 2 Kings chapter 5, verses 1-14. This is the story of Naaman being cured from leprosy. Sometimes we refuse to listen to other people's ideas because we think we always know best, we don't respect them. If Naaman had been like that he would never have followed the advice of his two servants and of Elisha the man of God, and he would not have been healed. A story to help us to remember to treat other people with respect.

We have a new focus value this half term: Trust. Our values help us live our 'vision' - our golden words. We invite parents of children who receive certificates to join us for worship on a Friday in school. However, you can still join us virtually if it is easier for you. Monday – Thursday we have whole school worship at 2.45pm. On a Friday it is 1pm or 2.30pm, please check with the office. You are welcome to join us at any of these sessions.

Amazon Wish Lists

As we reach the end of another academic year we reflect again on what a privilege it is to work in our schools. We are so fortunate. Thank you for working with us to support your children.

We do not expect gifts for doing our jobs, however for those of you who would like to show your appreciation in this way teachers have put together some wish lists for resources that would benefit the children even more next year. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Message from the Children's Commissioner

The children's commissioner has published her annual report on Children and Young People's Mental Health Services. She says that before we make decisions that affect young people, we need to listen to young people. Children's mental health is no exception. The number of children with a referral to mental health services has reached over a million – about 1 in 10 children – almost double the 564,000 in 2018-19.

We know there are still many more young people whose voices deserve to be heard. She invites you to complete her national survey, and is encouraging as many young people as possible to take part before it closes: <https://www.childrenscommissioner.gov.uk/thebigfuture>.

Teachers, parents and carers can respond on behalf of young children, or those who may need support to access the survey.

All Saints News

Thank you

Thank you all for your generosity in supporting the Friends activities. Saturn children are enjoying using the number balancing logs that we were able to buy with a donation from the Friends. Planks are also on their way! Thank you.

- Referrals can be made by parents, teachers, healthcare professionals, or anyone working closely with a Service child.
- Support is available through both individual and group sessions.
- Group sessions may be delivered within schools.

Resources for Military Families The website contains a wide range of resources designed to support children and families through various aspects of military life, including:

- Deployment and separation.
- House moves and relocation.
- Starting a new school.
- Managing change and maintaining wellbeing.

Little Troopers Letters Pack Families who are due to move can request a Little Troopers Letters Pack (postage costs apply). The pack includes:

- One pack for the Service child.
- One matching pack for a friend.

These packs are designed to help children stay connected with friends, particularly when moving to a new location.

There are a wealth of free and paid for resources available on the Little Troopers website, making it a valuable source of support not only during deployments but also during other significant transitions experienced by military families.

Thank You FOSM

Thank you to our Friends for more playground art. Lovely for children in wraparound care!

I look forward to seeing you all bright and early on Monday morning.

Remember lessons start at 8.45am.
