Is God Calling You to the Good News Club?

Opportunities are available for you to share the gospel of Jesus with children through the Good News Club at Delmae Elementary School beginning in October. Training will be provided and a background check will be needed but most importantly, volunteers are needed who have a love for children and a desire to share God's love with them.

For more information please contact
Marcie Bailey (843.992.4335).
