

Stewart Migwans

Stewart Migwans (1957–1985) was an Indigenous artist from the M'Chigeeng First Nation on Manitoulin Island, Ontario, Canada. Known for his mastery of Woodland art, Migwan's unique visual storytelling drew inspiration from traditional Anishinaabe legends and the natural world, blending vibrant colors and intricate patterns. His artwork resonated deeply with both Indigenous and non-Indigenous audiences, reflecting the spirit of his culture and a deep connection to the land.

Migwan's contributions to the Woodland art movement have left a lasting impression in the art world, inspiring future generations of Indigenous artists. His work exhibited in galleries across Canada, continues to captivate viewers with its vivid depictions of cultural themes and spiritual symbolism.
