9) Natural environmental changes, such as the passage of time and exposure to light, cause the colour of materials to gradually alter. Therefore, if a replacement is required, it may not be possible to provide a new unit which exactly matches the existing units. In this case, should the original material be no longer be obtainable, the Company will endeavour to provide the closest possible alternative from the current range.

10) Kitchen cabinets and doors should not be exposed for long periods to direct sunlight. Excessive heat from direct sunlight during the summer can cause wood to dry out and split, paint to fade and the glue behind vinyl wrap doors to degrade and the vinyl to peel. Damage caused by natural sunlight is not covered by our product guarantee.

11) This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with English Law.

12) In the event of a furniture supplier going into liquidation, Applewood will do its best to procure any replacement furniture, carcasses or and including doors and drawer front products under the terms of this guarantee, Applewood cannot be held responsible for procuring a replacement item if the company that manufactured the item is no longer trading or in business.

13) All work surface material is covered by the warranty from each individual surface/product manufacturer, any work top related issues will be subject to a report from the manufacturer depending on the circumstances of any reported issues.

14) Your Statutory Rights are not affected by the Terms of this Guarantee.
