In St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians Chapter 4, Verse 32, he says, "Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ."

What do these words mean to us as followers of Jesus? These words tell us what it means to be Christian, and how God calls us to “Live by the Spirit” so as to grow His Kingdom on earth and live holier, happier lives.

This school year, we will spend time focusing on the Sunday Gospel readings and what they tell us about how we can “Live by the Spirit” each and every day.

Verse from the Gospel: Jesus said to the chief priests and elders, "Many are invited, but few are chosen." (Matthew 22:14)

Word of the week: chosen

Imagine going through the work to plan a party and none of your specially chosen guests seem to care. Consider this: "When I think about myself as 'chosen by God', I feel...because..."

Prayer for the week: Lord Jesus, renew my respect and appreciation for Your gifts of creation which thrive because of You. Amen
